Mississippi.

The name conjures images of planters and share croppers, antebellum mansions and shacks, wealth and poverty and of course, cotton and kudzu.

These contrasts are often a source of both pride and embarrasment of Mississippi residents. Proud of the state's good points, Mississippians don't like to be reminded that the state ranks at or near the bottom in almost every economic area.

There have, however, been improvements in recent years. Mississippi has led the nation in recognizing problems with our educational system. And slowly, Mississippi's economic condition is improving.

Inspite of economic woes, Mississippi has an ambiance that most states do not enjoy. It sometimes seems that everyone in Mississippi knows everyone else — or their families anyway. Conversations with strangers invariably turn to shared friendships.

Because of this, Mississippi is loved as few states are. Hill, Delta and Coast residents may have their differences at times, but they all share a love for the state and its people. And there is just a friendliness in Mississippi that is not found in many states.

If you doubt this, walk through the Grove on a football weekend, or visit the Neshoba County Fair. No, Mississippi is not one big, happy family. But sometimes it seems like it is. — by Frank Hurdle

Oxford, with fewer than 10,000 citizens, is small. Located over an hour's drive from any major population center, in Northern Mississippi, it can be said to be in the middle of nowhere.

Yet Oxford's size and location are what makes it special. Oxford's isolation offers at least some shelter from the worries of the world. Crime rates are lower, and the pace of life is slower, than in a large city.

Oxford residents are aware that Ole Miss is what puts Oxford on the map, and they show it. Oxford residents are often the university's biggest boosters.

Ole Miss and Oxford tend to work well together. Oxford now handles fire protection for both the university and Oxford, allowing the purchase of better equipment to serve both communities. When Ole Miss needed a new baseball stadium, Oxford residents agreed to an additional tax to fund a stadium to serve both Oxford and the university.

Oxford residents keep abreast of the university, and vice versa. Often, residents and students form friendships that last long after a student's graduation from the university.

Many students do not even realize how attached they have become to Oxford, until after a long absence they circle the town square and suddenly get the feeling that they have come home.

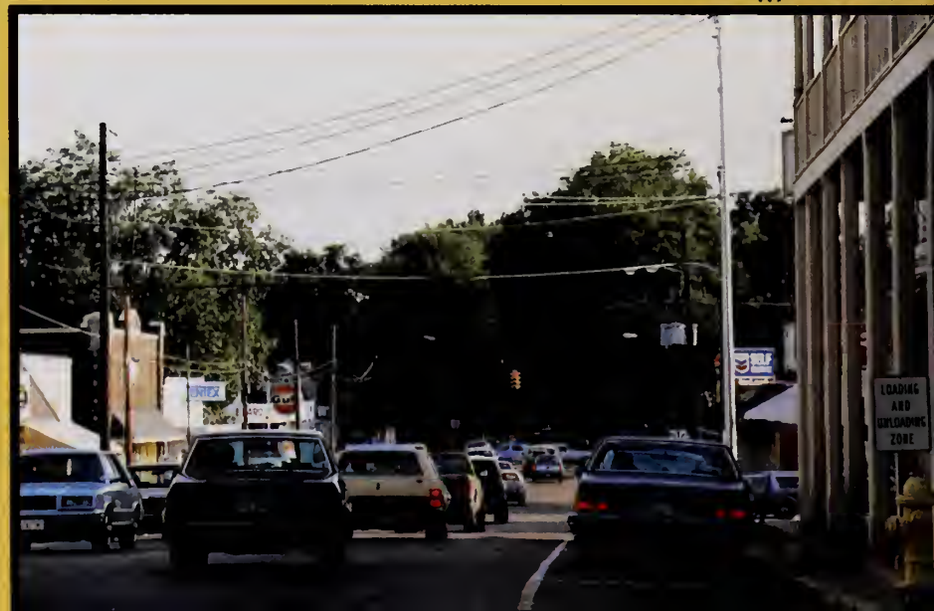

Because for many, Oxford will always be a second home. — by Frank Hurdle.

Ole Miss is a many-faceted gem, a jewel set in the golden rolling hills of Northeast Mississippi. In a state of different styles and cultures, we fit right in. We wear different cloaks at different times; in our closets are tie-dyes and silk ties. There are mornings in class, afternoons in the Grove, evenings spent in the library, late-nights at the Hoka. Even amongst the tradition that is the very backbone, the intangible spirit of Ole Miss, there are new thoughts, new ideas, reflected in our way of life. A special feeling exists here; it can be felt in the early morning of spring or in the twilight of brisk November. Can it be expressed in words? It is distinctly Southern and definitely Ole Miss. It wafts its way areound as softly as the name rolls off your tongue. — by John Barrett.

To both students and alumni the Grove represents the beauty, grace, and social atmosphere that the University of Mississippi is known for. It separates Ole Miss from the cluttered campuses of other schools and gives us a refreshing and spacious way of life.

With the arrival of September comes the changing of leaves and football season. Games at Vaught-Hemmingway signal the transformation of the Grove into a convention place for Rebel fans of all ages. Cars, vans and campers blanket the Grove along with vast amounts of food and drink. The memory of Homecoming in the Grove will never be forgotten by any Ole Miss student, and many alumni return each year to participate in this special occasion.

Stillness falls upon the Grove during winter, and the bare trees wait patiently for warm weather to give them new life. The winter browns turn to spring rainbows as the flowers and trees burst into bloom. This is the Grove at its lovliest.

No matter what other changes occur, the Grove will always symbolize the beauty and spirit of Ole MIss. From gerneration to generation, the Grove will remain the beauty of the University of Mississippi. — by Kerry Rice

Every year Oxford gets a facelift: new buildings are constructed; sports facilities are added; recreational centers are founded. The year was no different

Fast food places got new competition from the much awaited establishment of Burger King. Mexican food lovers welcomed the arrival of Mama T's and of course, Taco Bell. Some of the other food additions were Subway shop and Garden Deli.

A new road connecting Jackson Avenue directly with Fraternity Row is nearing completion. This will give drivers a short-cut to the Oxford Mall.

Within the Ole Miss campus, the new Physical Acoustics Center had its ground breaking ceremony in the fall, and sports fans cherished the construction of the new baseball stadium. The University's new supercomputer was also installed this year. A warehouse is being built behind Kincannon Hall to store excess dorm furniture.

Ever-growing Oxford blends the new with the old. While nothing can diminish the majesty of the Lyceum, Rowan Oak and other vintage institutions, newer additions only add to the dazzle and glory of this ever-resplendant small college town. — by Rumman Dastgir

Tradition is defined as the handing down of information, beliefs, and customs by word of mouth or by example from one generation to another without written instruction.

At Ole Miss, traditions are handed down from class to class, instead of by generations. But with that exception, the dictionary definition fits tradition at Ole Miss.

Ole Miss traditions are many and varied, but they are certainly carried on without written instruction. Alumni and students know what is traditional almost instinctively.

Administration efforts to artificially control tradition have failed miserably. Students and alumni still wave Rebel flags, yell "Hotty Toddy" and thrill to the strains of "Dixie." Students still live up to Ole Miss' reputation as a "party school," whether the administration likes it or not.

How are traditions started? There is no set formula. Instead, traditions are started when something strikes the students' fancy and is adopted. By its very nature, tradition must come from grass root support. Efforts to dictate from above what tradition should be and are doomed to failure.

Whatever is in the future of Ole Miss, one can be sure that tailgating, Rebel flags, "Dixie," dressing up for games, "Hotty Toddy," Dixie Week and partying will be a part of the future.

Underneath it all, however, is an even greater tradition. A tradition that students, long after graduation from the University of Mississippi will still be a part of Ole Miss. — by Frank Hurdle.

When you want o blow off studying, there is always something to do on a cold winter day or a beautiful spring day. Oxford offers a lot for students to do in their spare time.

Here is just a few things that anyone can do for little or no money: taking a walk or having a picnic in the Grove; taking a nature walk behind Faulkners home; cruising fraternity or sorority row to check out the guys or gals; hunting in the hills of Mississippi's woodlands; going to Sardis on a warm spring day; playing football or frisbee just about anywhere there is room; watching the Rebel sports spring, winter or fall; cheap night at the movies; partying all day or night at the local bars or in someones apartment; bowling at Kiamie's; having cheese cake at the Hoka; canoeing down a river (don't forget to tip over); going to Memphis to shop or party; going on a road trip whether it is 20 or 600 miles from Oxford; or just about anything you want to do, other than studying.

The University of Mississippi is known for strong academics. Ole Miss has been called by more than one person the "Ivy League of the South," offering a good education at the economic convenience of a state-supported school. Teacher-to-student ratio is high, giving Ole Miss the advantage of more personal instruction.

We are proud of our academic traditions — Ole Miss has produced 23 Rhodes Scholars, leaders on state and national levels, and prominent businessmen. The University is taking new directions in the academic field, recently acquiring a Supercomputer and landing the National Center for Physical Acoustics. The University Honors program is known throughout the country as a model program.

With the rich scholastic tradition and new developments, the future is even brighter than the present for academic excellence at Ole Miss. — by John Barrett.

The Pride of the South Marching Band, Rebeletts and Color guard also give the fans and team their all to perform well at each game. Johnny Reb, our mascot, is always making someone laugh or smile by his acts and cheers. All of these people are dedicated and put long hours of practice, just to support our Rebels and the University.

One of the most distinguishing characteristics of the University of Mississippi is the astounding number of students who get involved in campus activities — whether it be academic, social, political, athletics, or some or all of these and others.

For the academically oriented there is the Honor's Program. It is an accelerated and advanced program of study for outstanding students. Several National Honor Societies at all levels and fields of study are available for those who qualify. Taylor Medalists, Gannett Scholars, Rhodes Scholars; twenty three to this date, and members of Phi Kappa Phi; the University's highest honor, constitute Ole Miss's very own "braintrust."

Greek life forms the crux of Ole Miss's social activities. Hundreds of students go through rush every year aspiring to become a part of this Ole Miss institution. Fraternity/Sorority parties, swaps, Greek Week, Sigma Chi Derby Day, Delta Gamma Anchor Splash, and other non-Greek activities like Dixie Week give students ample opportunity to enjoy themselves.

Everyone interested in getting involved in student politics has numerous opportunities to do so. Dormatories offer serveral opporturnies; floor representative, Hall President, Resident Advisor, Hall Director, etc. On a campus wide setting there is the ASB (Associated Student Body) which offers numerous ways to get involved. The Student Programming Board, Student Alumni Council, the Black Student Union, the Daily Mississippian and the Ole Miss annual are a few organizations to get involved in. For serious politicos there are the College Republicans and the College Democrats.

For sports fans and fanatics, the Intramural Department provides ample opportunities to get involved. Intramural competitions are held in almost all major events. For the better atheletes there are official university teams such as football, tennis, golf, volleyball, track and field, baseball, etc.

Overall Ole Miss is a very active school. With over 200 organizations and honoraries on campus there is bound to be at least one organization to suit everyone. Get involved, there would not be a Ole Miss without the students, so do something for the school that you are a part of. — by Rumman Dastgir.

Friendly smiles are truly abundant at Ole Miss. Mingled with tradition and enhanced by charm, this delightful trait is exhibited by every Ole Miss student, faculty, and staff. It is as if the warm Southern climate has seeped into the hearts of everyone on campus, and has cast a perpetual sunny glow on everyone's face.

Whether attending a ball game or a religious service, whether at a party or in class, whether whistling "Take me out to the ball game" at a baseball stadium or learning karate chops at a self-defense class, one can see smiling faces. Campus-wide events like Dixie Week, Greek Week, Homecoming and other social atheletic functions add further outlets for this innate Ole Miss characteristic.

Rich in spirit and affluent in warmth, Ole Miss strives to be an academic institution that combines the heart with the intellect. It seems to be doing a great job of it, as reflected in everyone's faces. — by Rumman Dastgir.

Homecoming '87

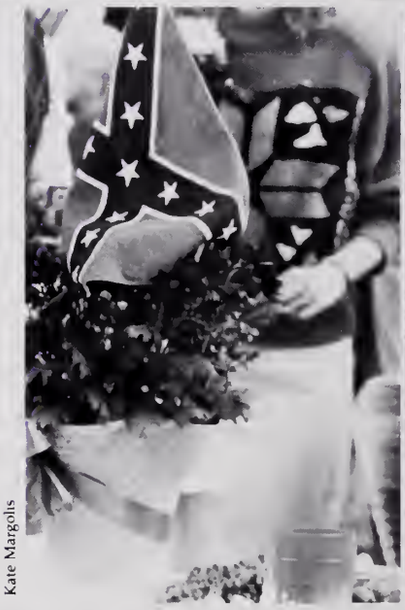

Homecoming — it's a time to come back to Ole Miss to see the changes that have taken place and to take part in traditions that just will not die. It's the height of the social season, a time when old friends return and families unite.

Before the big weekend we all adjusted our attitudes in the Grove to the tunes of Beanland and the melody of Trowbridge and Harrington. Some students spent their afternoons stuffing crepe paper through chicken wire for the float competition. The theme this year was "Straight A's for Ole Miss: Academics, Athletics, Alumni."

By Friday the out of towners had rolled into Oxford in their Jaguars and R.V. campers. They packed the restaurants and bars that evening. Then the actual day came. Everyone took their place in the Grove, eating, drinking, and chit-chatting as the jazz band's music drifted down from the Union and settled under the huge Oak trees. When the football team made its annual march through the Grove, the crowd's excitement grew as they headed for the stadium. At halftime Emily Fulcher was crowned Homecoming Queen and the maids were presented by the M Club. New Alumni Hall of Fame members were inducted and the Tri-Delta's, Kappa Alpha's and Delta Psi's were annouced winners of the float competition by Sorority Division, Fraternity Division, and overall winner, respectively.

By the end of the game Ole Miss had pounded Vanderbilt 42-14. Everyone left the stadium waving their Rebel flags and cheering themselves on to the awaiting parties. — H.H.

Football games

When an Ole Miss student thinks of home ball games, he thinks of weekends spent in Oxford, filled with exciting things to do.

It all starts Thursday night as we cheer the Rebels on during the pep rally in the Grove. Spirit awards are given to the sorority or fraternity who can show the most spirit and everyone has a great time. On Friday night, everyone, along with their dates, goes out to eat before the bands crank up on fraternity row. Ruby's, Starnes', J.P.'s, and Syd and Harry's are frequented by Ole Miss fans during football weekends.

Dressed for the game, Rebel flags in hand, students take the short walk to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium to cheer on the Rebs on Saturday afternoon. Parents, alumni, and students swarm the Grove before and after the ball game Saturday enjoying all the good food and visiting with friends. There is nothing better than coming back after a spirit-filled game to relax in the Grove with our friends.

No matter what the score of the game turns out to be, home football games mean a weekend full of good times with friends, rich with the tradition that is Ole Miss. — L.V.Z.

SPB All-Nighter

The SPB All-Nighter, always a time of fun and frolic for everyone, took place on Friday, November 13, 1987. Participants could play free video games, enter the pool or ping-pong tournaments, or get up an act for the David Letterman-style stupid human and pet tricks. For the more superstitious ones, "Friday the 13th" I and II were shown and ghost stories were told. If you were hungry, there was popcorn and a six foot subway sandwich to eat. As in the past, the All-Nighter lasted late into the night and was a big success. — S.W.

Night Life

For a small college town, Oxford has a variety of nighttime entertainment. From Irish pubs to Mexican cantinas, movie theatres to discotheques, not to mention great bars — both alcoholic and dry — it's all here.

The Gin — Well known for its peaceful atmosphere, The Gin's the place to bring a casual date and have a great time. Who could forget the Kazoo Contests, 75 cent longnecks, and those famous Gin t-shirts.

Syd & Harry's — "Sophisticated" is how one Ole Miss co-ed describes this bar/restaurant. Great food, live bands, Margarita Wednesday, and Love Night are why many Ole Miss students frequent this laid back, yet preppy bar.

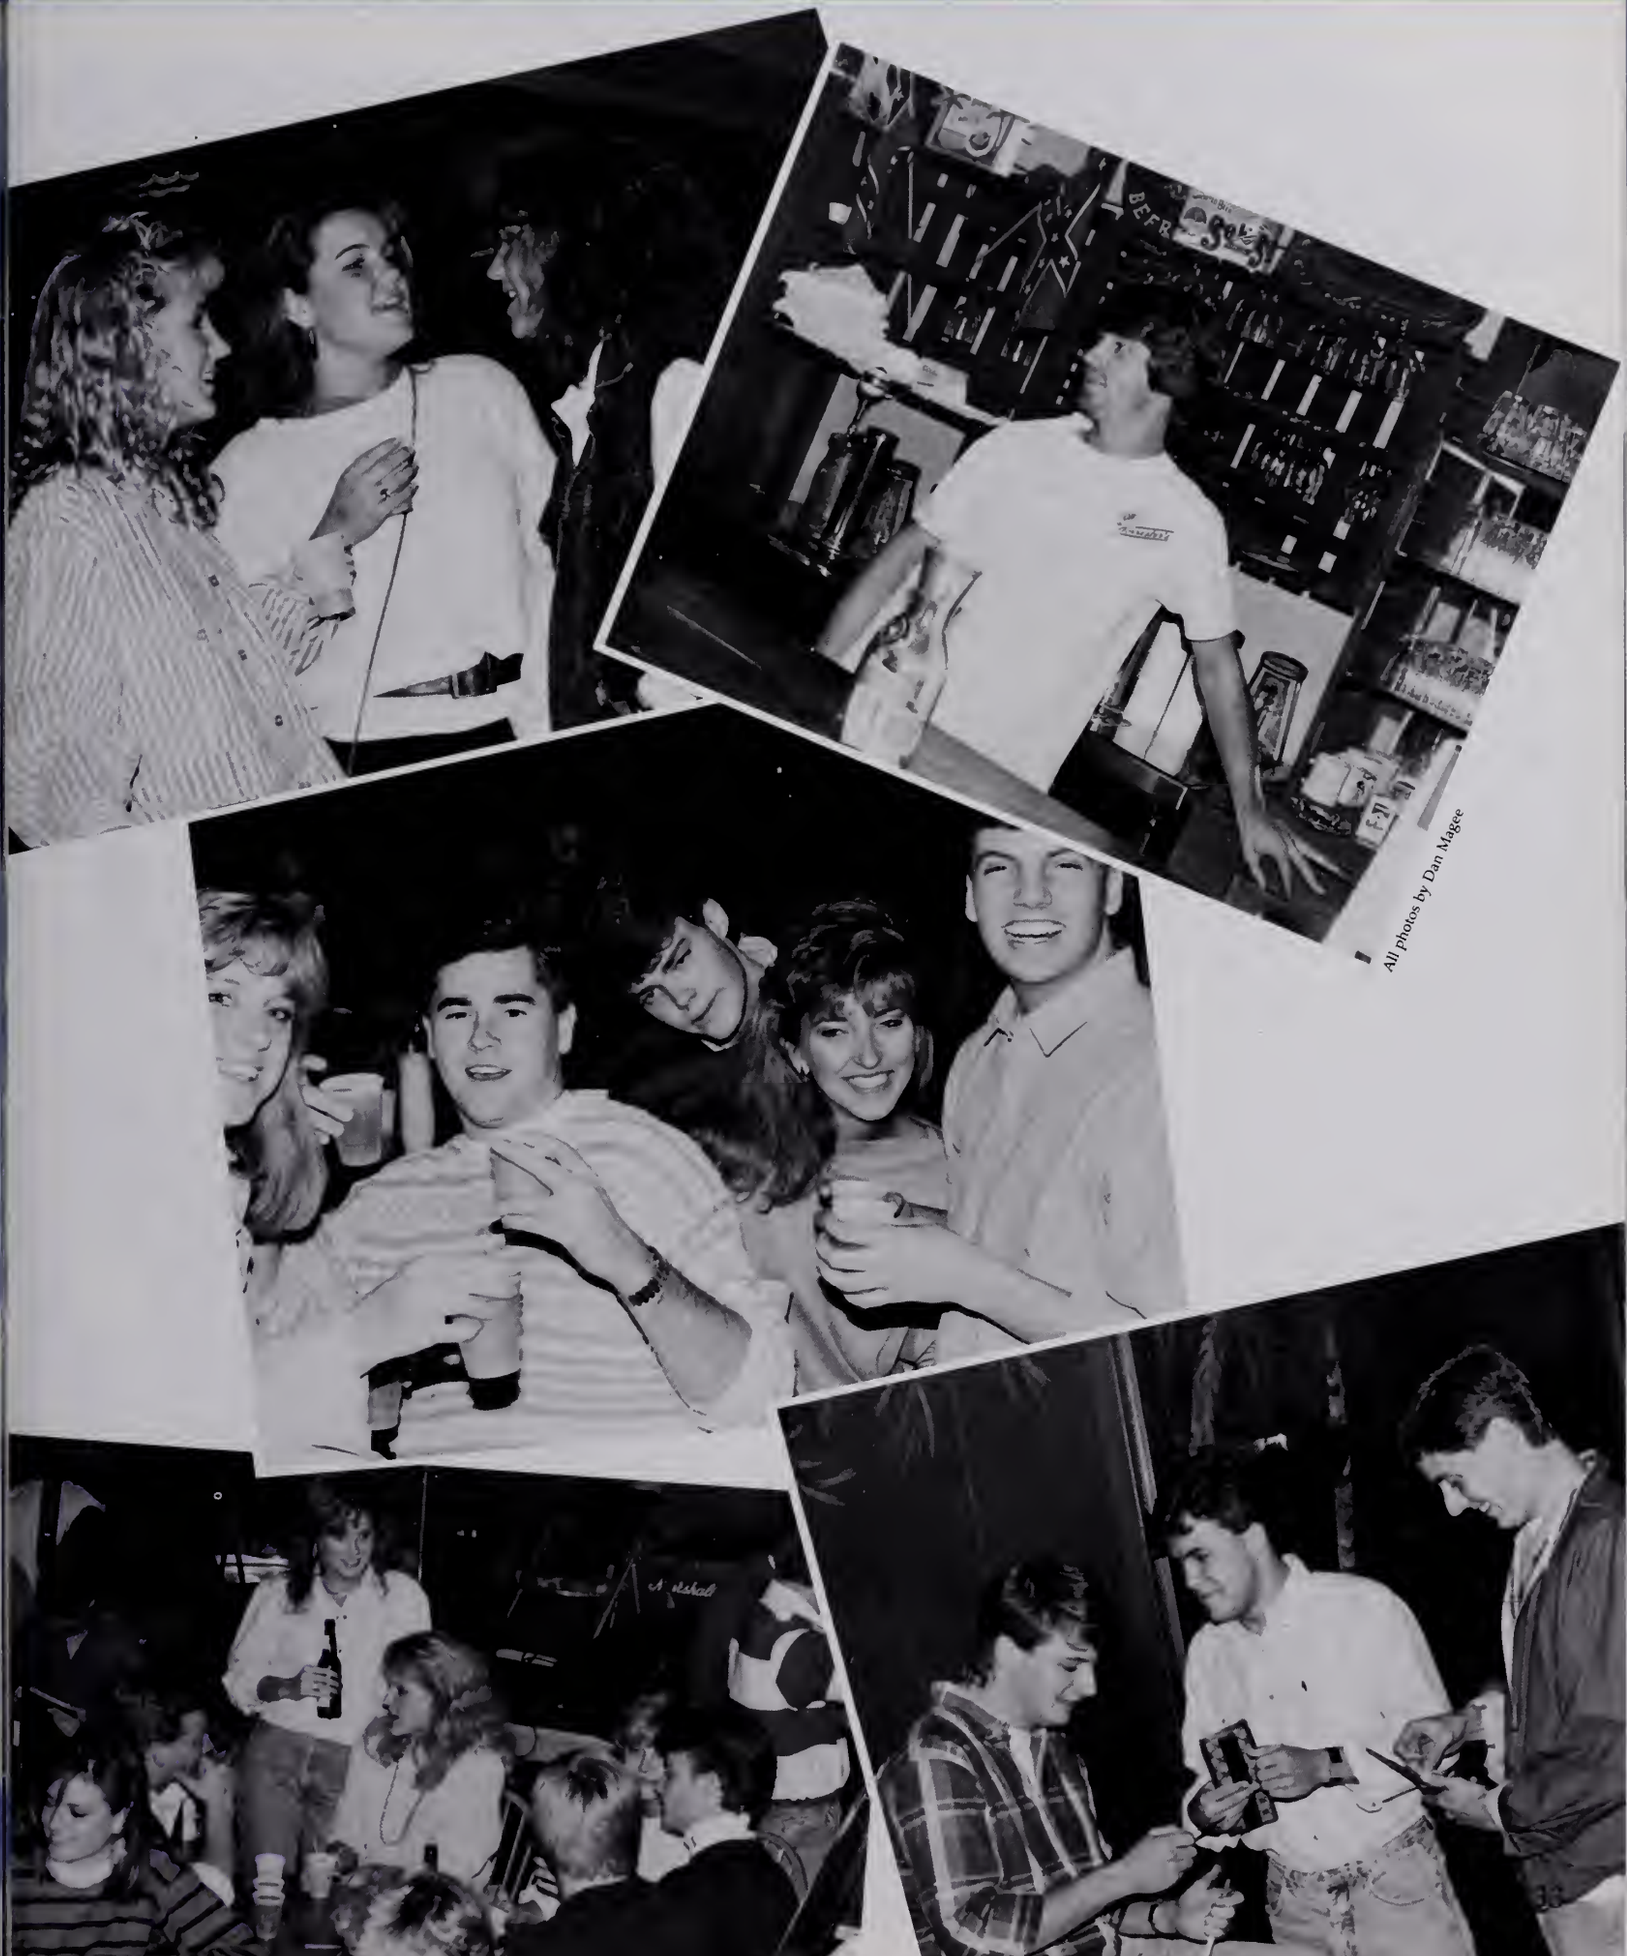

Irelands — A favorite of the locals, Irelands provides a very relaxed atmosphere. Just sit back with a beer and watch the big screen T.V. or go downstairs for a game of pool. The Thursday night regulars always show up for Beanland.

Forresters — All types frequent Forresters. The largest bar in Oxford includes Pat's Porch — the outdoor patio, dart boards, a downstairs pool hall, and dance floor as well as the two main bars. The plate lunches and crawfish boils are super.

The Hoka — This movie theatre/cafe provides a delightful alternative to the usual "popcorn and Coke" movies. Featuring classics from "All About Eve" to "Rocky Horror", this often visited place is renowned for its hot fudge pie, cheese cake, and cinamon coffee (a must!!). Jazz and Blues are piped in and occasional musicians like James "Son" Thomas perform. The Hoka Pocus Players put on an occasional play. Former Miss Americas, Allen Ginsberg, and members of the band REM visit the Hoka when in Oxford. Whether in a t-shirt and jeans or coat and tie, one can always feel at home in the Hoka.

Off the Wall — Oxford's premiere discotheque and newest establishment features live bands, complimentary buffets and drink specials. It's the place to be on Ladies Night. Owner, Jeff Thompson calls his bar "upbeat classy."

Mama T's — This Mexican restaurant and cantina is known for its live entertainment (Lee Thigpen, Trowbridge and Harrington) and Happy Hours on Wednesdays and Thursdays. — R.D.

Concerts

We knew it had to be big when students camped out in front of the ticket office in the Union and controversy arose over ticket distribution. Then REM's 1987 Work Tour rocked a sold out crowd at Tad Smith Coliseum. The DB's got things rolling along and during intermission, people could visit the Greenpeace and Amnesty International tables outside. Soon after, REM kicked off their set with "Finest Worksong" and played some old favorites from their previous albums. Michael Stipe danced wildly about the stage as the giant movie screen behind him randomly flashed words, T.V. clips and home movies, (if it weren't for the "dance police" we could cut loose too.) With so much going on — it was like sensory overload! Whether you left the show feeling overwhelmed, inspired, disappointed, or confused, you could tell that REM put alot of heart and energy into their November 22 performance. — H.A.H

Tuesday night, November 3rd, Fulton Chapel was filled with students, faculty, and friends as they crowded in to cheer on their favorite contestant at the 1987 Parade of Beauties Pageant. With ninety-eight girls competing, expectations were high, and at the end of the evening Beth Howell was crowned Most Beautiful. A freshman from Clinton and a member of Delta Gamma sorority, Beth was sponsored by Kappa Alpha fraternity. Miss Mississippi 1988, Toni Seawright, performed several musical numbers throughout the evening and Anita Whitaker, Miss Louisana 1983 performed "Dancing in the Street", the pageant's theme song. Contestants were judged on interview, facial beauty, figure and posture, grace and poise, carriage and grooming. The top ten beauties are Lisa Cole, Dana Dalton, Tia Dees, Shelby Hammond, Angela Hart, Robin King, Angela Ligon, Laura Murray, Chandra Willis, and Elizabeth Wyatt. — M.L.

Christmas

As the weather turned cooler and students began preparing for finals, they still made time to celebrate the coming holiday as well. The Christmas season at Ole Miss was kicked off on December 1st as Chancellor Turner lighted the University Christmas tree in front of the union. The BSU choir and the concert band performed at the ceremony. Throughout the month, students got into the spirit in a variety of ways. Sending cards and shopping on the square and in Memphis occupied students' time, as did attending the many parties sponsored by sororities, fraternities, and residence halls. Some went to Dickens' "A Christmas Carol", presented by the Hoka-Pocus Players, or Handel's "Messiah", performed by the University choirs and the Tupelo Symphony.

With windows framed in twinkling lights, the Union bells chiming familiar carols, and parties to go to, Ole Miss was surrounded by Christmas spirit. — M.L.

Artist Series

The 1987-1988 Artist Series included eight diverse performances. The Mantovani Orchestra opened the season on October 5, when they presented "A Night in Vienna" consisting of familiar tunes played by the 36 member group. The New York Woodwind Quintet, one of the tops in their field of music, brought chamber music to the stage on November 19. During the Christmas season, Amahl and the Night Visitors, an opera filled with a Christmas message,was presented featuring genuine costuming and scenery from the times. A thriller indeed, Dracula, was presented on January 27. The National Players acting company staged this performance as well as Othello, the classic Shakesperian tragedy of love and jealousy. Leon Bates, well known across college campuses as a favorite pianist, performed February 18. The Ballet Hispanico of New York performed modern ballet combined with traditional Hispanic dance. The Artist series season ended with the Masterplayers Chamber Orchestra on April 14, a group that has toured across Europe and Canada and acquired world-wide fame.

Company

The 1987-88 Ole Miss Theatre season was extremely successful and enjoyable to both the performers and the audiences who came to watch.

The first show of the season was "The Foreigner", performed in Fulton Chapel September 24-26. Written by Larry Shue, this comedy deals with an Englishman who is relaxing at a Georgia fishing lodge. The fun comes in when you put someone of this man's background into situations with the locals of the area.

Next up was the Homecoming musical, "Company", with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim. This show ran October 22-24 in Fulton Chapel and is the 1971 Tony Award winner which centers on a thirty-five-year-old bachelor who is pressured by his married friends to tie the knot.

On the evenings of November 12,14,17,19,21, in the Studio Theatre, "Baby With The Bathwater" was presented. This show, written by Christopher Durang, takes a look at the problems and surprises involved with raising children.

Bill C Davis' "Mass Appeal" was performed in the Studio Theatre November 13,18, and 20. This two-character play deals with the personal and theological relationship between a Catholic priest and a young seminarian.

"Little Footsteps", the first production of the spring semester, was performed February 2-6 at the Studio Theatre. Both sentimental and funny, this show presents the dilema that prospective parenthood poses for a young New York couple.

Fulton Chapel was the scene for the February 25-27 production of "The Importance of Being Earnest", by Oscar Wilde. This hilarious classic pokes fun at life and love in British high society.

The 1987-88 Theatre season closed with the April 5-9 showing of Sam Shepard's "Fool for Love" in the Studio Theatre. This production takes an intense look at love and human relationships.

This year's theatre season was a success because of the hard work of many actors, actresses, crews, designers, and directiors who allowed us to enjoy such first-rate shows. — S.W.

Summer Showcase

The 1987 Summer Showcase/Festival of Southern Theatre included five shows with hard-working and talented casts, crews, and director's. The two musicals included "My One and Only", featuring the music of George Gershwin, June 25-27; and "On Your Toes," a classic Rodgers and Hart production, July 30-August 1.

The Festival of Summer Theatre is comprised of the three winning plays from the annual contest seeking original plays which deal with Southern themes. This year the winning play was "Blue Collar Blues," by Denise Willard, and the runners-up were "So Tender A Bond," by Patricia Boatner, and "Matchless," by Kenn Robbins. Several writers and critics from major metropolitan newspapers were on-hand to critique this year's festival. — S.W.

Dixie Week '87

Christina Collier

Dixie Week! It's that beloved spring ritual that everyone looks foward to. This is the week set aside to blow-off classes, put on our shorts and shades, and enjoy the festivities.

It all started Tuesday night after Easter holidays as we grabbed our blankets and friends and took off to the Grove to watch "The Shinning" and "The Graduate."

"The wilder the better" is what we thought as we were tie-dying our T-shirts and boxers in the Grove while we listened to Beanland play some favorite tunes. Eddie Clearwater and his band carried our worries away and soothed our souls with their "blues." We all had fun watching and participating in the campus wide game of Simon Says. The senior class had its traditional barbeque and afterwards students competed in the "Comedy Laugh-Off" held in the Union ballroom where anything went.

Thursday night "The Malemen" played in front of the Union and the fun continued through the late hours with "The Crime" while we all partied our school blahs away.

The Annual grudge between the Red & Blue teams took place Saturday and some fraternities had bands to dance to Saturday night. Dixie Week was concluded with the Travel House Dixie Week Golf Classic on Sunday which benefited the American Cancer Society.

Dixie Week was a blast because we got the chance to get away from our books for a week and try to forget about upcoming finals by enjoying the company of friends and all of the fun activities. — L.V.Z.

Competition was stiff, but by the end of the evening, Steve Wilson had caught the judges' attention and walked away with the crown. With municipal court Judge Dwight Ball as master of ceremonies, nine houseboys vied for the coveted title. In the first phase of competition, contestants paraded across the stage in costumes representing the symbol or mascot of their sorority sponsor. In the second phase, the talent competition, Wilson stole the show with his rendition of the song,"Keep Your Hands To Yourself", with his back-up band, The Diggs. The evening wear competition was the final phase, and for this, each of the houseboys chose a flattering gown that emphasized their beauty.

Spring Break

. . . Ole Miss Style

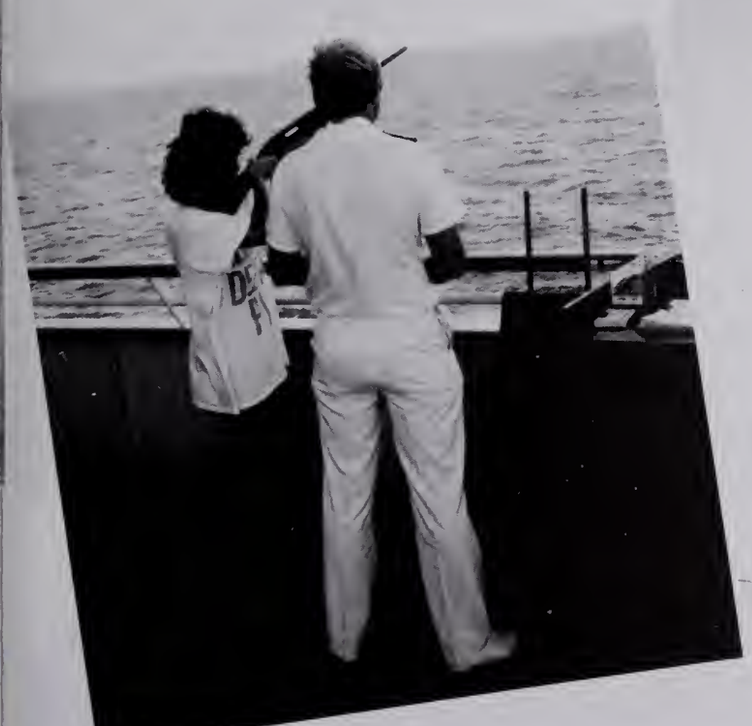

Spring Break . . . a time for fun, friends, relaxtion, and forgetting about classes for a while.

Ole Miss students make plans and reservations early for flights that will take them to exotic, sunny places such as Cancun and Puerto Vallarta or to Steamboat Springs and Breckenridge for a week of skiing. Other students load up in their cars and head to traditional spring break spots such as South Padre Island, Destin, Ft. Walton, and Ft. Lauderdale for a week of beaches crowded with sunbathers and nights filled with parties everywhere.

Spring break is always a free week to have as much fun as you can and to do whatever you want, whether that be skiing, fun in the sun, or just taking it easy at home. Whatever the case, the Ole Miss student knows how to do it right.

If anything typifies Ole Miss it has be the Grove. For generations it as served as Ole Miss' playground. he Grove is the place to be on nny Spring days whether you're alking the dog, throwing a frisbee having a picnic. Bikers and walk-s can be seen taking the shortcut to niversity Avenue while others udy and read under the grand old aks. Of course, the afternoon con-rts in the Grove are always the rfect solution to end "the blahs." hen again you could just sit alone ith the trees and watch the squir-ls cut up. — HAH

Books, Movies, and Songs

Richard Whitley

Bandwagon trends and long-awaited comebacks marked the year in cinema and music. Yuppie society inspired the craze of "baby" movies such as "Baby Boom", "She's Having a Baby", "3 Men and a Baby" and "For Keeps". The trend begun by "Platoon" and "Full Metal Jacket" took on a new twist with "Good Morning, Vietnam", a hilarious comedy which marked Robin Williams' return to the screen. Michael Douglas riveted audiences in the psychological thriller "Fatal Attraction", and then again in "Wall Street". Other hit movies included "Broadcast News", Steven Speilberg's "Empire of the Sun", and the outlandishly funny "Raising Arizona". The biggest surprise of the year was probably the box office smash "Dirty Dancing", the hot musical romance starring Patrick Swayze and Jennifer Grey. The soundtrack album topped the charts, as did the singles, "Time of my Life", "Hungry Eyes", and "She's like the Wind".

Another soundtrack, from the movie "Less than Zero", kept the Bangles riding high on their rise to stardom with the Simon and Garfunkle remake of "Hazy Shade of Winter". The much-anticipated "Tunnel of Love" by Bruce Springsteen showed fans a more introspective side of the Boss, and "Bad", Michael Jackson's follow-up to "Thriller", didn't dissapoint them either. Belinda Carlisle, Steve Winwood, George Harrison, U2, and Prince all hit big with new releases, as did George Michael with "Faith", containing the top-selling, highly controversial single, "I Want Your Sex".

Hard rock groups enjoyed a wave of commercial success with a string of hits by groups including White Snake, Poison, Cinderella, and Motley Crue. Alongside of them were newcomers Debbie Gibson, Tiffany, and REM.

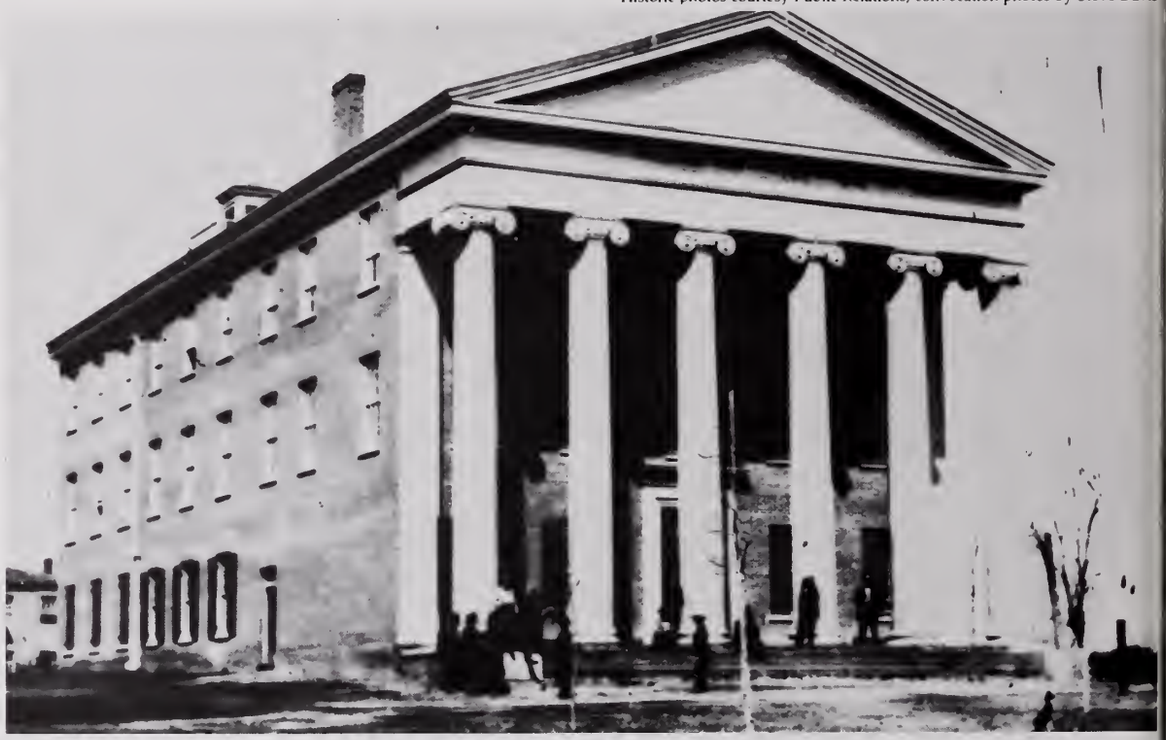

In literature, Sidney Sheldon kept readers spellbound once again with his new bestseller "Windmill of the Gods". The most talked about, critically acclaimed book, however, was "Bonfire of the Vanities", by Tom Wolfe, the leading social satirist of his generation.-M.L.

The top twenty albums of 1987:

Happy 140th birthday, Ole Miss! This year the University of Mississippi celebrates 140 years of tradition, excellence, and pride. The faculty, staff, and students kicked off the year long celebration with a convocation in the C. M. "Tad" Smith Coliseum on January 27, 1988. Dignitaries such as Mississippi's First Lady Julie Mabus and Lt. Governor Brad Dye were on hand to greet the Ole Miss community and offer congratulatory remarks. The faculty was robed in full academic regalia for the event, and the combined University of Mississippi choirs performed in conjunction with the Ole Miss band. We hope some of the pictures on this page will help you glimpse into the rich heritage of Ole Miss' past and spark fond memories of our own year here at this grand institution. — S.W.

DATING . . . OLE MISS STYLE

Our couple Tad and Tammy go out on their first date.

1. Tad and Tammy first make eye contact in English class.

2. TAD — "So, uh, maybe if your uh, not busy maybe you might want to go out Friday night."

3. "First time to shave Tad?" Our boy gets ready at the frat house for his first date with Tammy.

4. Tammy is certainly excited about her big date with Tad.

5. Tad — "Hey Tammy, just thought I would call and make sure you're still going out with me, ha,ha,ha."

6. Tammy — "Well actually Tad, I forgot we were going out and made other plans . . . just joking Tad."

7. Our evening starts off at the movies. It looks like the kids can't agree on which movie to see.

8. "Missed the movie, huh. Oh well Tad, taking her to Syd & Harry's for a nice dinner should impress her."

9. "That is if you can afford it. Look at those prices Tad, you had better think quick."

10. Our swave man about town knows a better place with more atmosphere. Maybe Burger King.

11. After hitting the bar scene, (underage maybe?), the stud sneaks Tammy up to his room.

12. Whatever happened behind closed doors was not all good and they end up fighting in front of her dorm.

13. Tammy is pretty tore up about the breakup of what appeared to be TRUE LOVE.

14. "Hey take it easy Tad." It seems as though our hero thinks he can drown his sorrows in alcohol.

15. Weeks latter: Love conquers all and Tad and Tammy get back together. "What's that Tad, A DROP?"

16. AND THEY LIVED HAPPILY EVER AFTER. Yeah, right.

ABCDE O FG L HI E JKLM

A . . . is for Alcohol, alcohol is derived from the distilation or the fermentation of grains and fruits. It sometimes appears to be the life blood of some Ole Miss students.

Dan Magee

B . . . is for Beer, which is form of the above. B is also for Bowheads, which can always be found at the Law Library looking for a husband.

C . . . is for Cars. These are used by Ole Miss students to travel that arguous journey to and from classes. Cars of Bavarian variety are preferred. C is also for Confederates. Most Southerners still seem to think they actually won the Civil War.

D . . . is for Dating, which is a fine art here at Ole Miss. (See page 59 for more information.)

E . . . is for Elections, which is something that seems to occur every other month. E is also for Empty, which can describe your checking account, refridgerator, bottle of bourbon, etc.

F . . . is for Football. It's when you dress up in hot clothes, get a date, get a bottle, get a flag, and go stand in the stadium and cheer on the Rebels. It's a religion here at Ole Miss, win or lose.

G . . . is for Grades, yeah grades, that is why we are here, isn't it? G is also for Greeks, you either love them or hate them.

H . . . is for the Hoka. It's a great place to go and just relax, have some cheesecake, and catch a flick. H is also for Home football games, you know the ones we play in Jackson, 200 miles away.

I . . . is for I.D. You are a nobody at Ole Miss if you don't have a I.D. card. Please no fake ones.

J . . . is for Jack Daniels or Jim Beam, two close friends and big Rebel football fans. They are always at the games and they have a lot of school spirit(s).

Dan Magee

K . . . is for Kroger. This place never closes, you can cash checks here without paying 50¢. You might even get a date here.

L . . . is for the Library. The stacks must have been designed on the WWII submarine motif. They say you can take all the books in every public university in the state and put them in the library at L.S.U. What good will that do? They can't read down there anyway.

NOP M QR I ST S UV S WXYZ

M . . . is for Memphis. It's a great place to road trip to for the day or night, to go shopping or just to party.

N . . . is for New Orleans. What else could beat a road trip to "Mempho" than one to "Nawlins." With streets with names like "Bourbon" it has to be great.

O . . is for Overdrawn, like most student checkbooks around final time.

P . . . is for Partying. It is what Ole Miss does best. It is a required course at Ole Miss. It meets nightly usually Wednesday through Saturday, 4:00pm until the party is over. P is also for Parking, which is a definite problem that truly seems unsolvable.

Hamp Overton

Q . . . is for Queers. You better watch out for these in certain library restrooms. Q is also for Quasi, which has become a frequent name used around the Daily Mississippian office this year.

R . . . is for Rebel Flags. Bring your own, the University will not provide you with one.

S . . . is for Stereos. Everybody has a stereo that is louder than the other guy's, and they are out to prove it. Hence, "Stereo Wars."

T . . . is for Tickets. U.P.D. will give you a ticket just any ol' time. They add up after awhile, but the money does go to a good cause, putting someone else through school. If you want tickets, say to an R.E.M. concert, you better get there early and buy in bulk.

Richard Whitley

U . . . is for U.P.D. When are they going to get a SWAT team and just start blowing students away who park in faculty parking spots?

V . . . is for Voting. "Have you exercised your right to vote today?" During certain elections, it is possible to get a date just by walking down the street and telling someone you haven't voted yet.

W . . . is for THE Warehouse. We have to feel sorry for those of you who never had a chance to go to the beloved watering hole, but like a lot of other Ole Miss traditions, it is simply "gone with the wind."

X . . . is for Xerox. You know those wonderful xerox machines in the Library, only 5¢ but do they ever work?

Y . . . is for Yankee. There are a few of us that still believe there is life other than being a Southerner.

Z . . . is for Zoo, as in Stockard Dorm.

REBELS BREAK EVEN

GORDON AND SIMON LEAD TEAM

Ole Miss head Coach Jake Gibbs headed into the 1987 season optimistically and with good reason. Gibbs in his sixteenth season with the team is the winningest coach in Rebel baseball history. He had starters returning in every position. Twenty-two lettermen, including Senior All-American candidate Kyle Gordon and Senior All-Southeastern conference performer Bubba Simon, were returning to the squad. The Rebels completed the season with a win-loss record of 25-25-1 overall; 11-16 in the SEC.

Gordon added 7 more home runs to his Rebel record for most career home runs. Joe Gex and Kyle Gordon led the team with 56 hits each.

"I feel like we'll be a very experienced ball club and have a lot of senior leadership on the field," said Gibbs. "We'll return several experienced players that will play a key role in the success of the season. However, we'll have a young pitching staff that will have to come through for us early." The pitching staff ended the season with an earned run average of 5.07 led by sophomore Jeff Purvis who finished with a 9-2 record and a 3.42 ERA.

The 1987 season proved a fair one. Both Bubba Simon and Joe Gex were named All-Southeastern conference; Gex led the team with a .350 batting average, 3 home runs, and 53 RBIs. Simon followed with a .348 batting average, 9 home runs, and 39 RBIs.

All-in-all the Rebel baseball program, after completing the 1987 season winning 50% of their games, will look good as they enter the 1988 season.

Kyle Gordon entered the ranks of the Rebels in 1983 as a redshirted freshman from Jackson. During his career at Ole Miss, the All-SEC first baseman led the team in home runs, RBIs, and hitting. Gordon came through for the Rebels on several occasions with game winning RBIs and he finished his career at Ole Miss with 48 home runs and a .338 batting average. Receiving his B.A. from UM in December 1986 holding a 3.42 GPA, Gordon was named Academic All-SEC and Academic All-American for his efforts. Kyle Gordon — truly an Ole Miss All-American.

EXPECTATIONS DON'T PAN OUT

PROBATION, MISTAKES LEAD TO LOSSES

"We made mistakes on the field, and that's our fault, not the coaches. They prepared us to play." Those words of junior quarterback Mark Young emortalized the 1987 Rebel football season.

The team began the year with a disappointing loss to Memphis State in the Liberty Bowl and the mistakes Billy Brewer said, seemed to snowball, "A couple of times we thought we had it stabilized, but the players took punch after punch."

"When you come out and play as hard as they did today, it shows the pride and class they have," said Brewer after the 20-30 heartbreak loss to Mississippi State in Jackson.

With nine starters returning to the defensive squad that was No. 1 in the SEC in 1986, the defense just didn't pan out. "We only had three seniors on the defense this year," said Jeff Herrod. "All the other guys are young."

Quarterbacks Mark Young and John Darnell shared time at the top post. Young completed 104 passes of 261 attempts, while Darnell posted 54 passes of 95 attempts. Shawn Sykes led the team in rushing, totaling 379 net yards and J. R. Ambrose led the team in receiving with 49 catches for 515 yards and three touchdowns. Kicker Bryan Owen completed 12 of 15 field goals and led the team in scoring with 59 points. Punter Charles Childers punted 38 times for a 39.2 yard average.

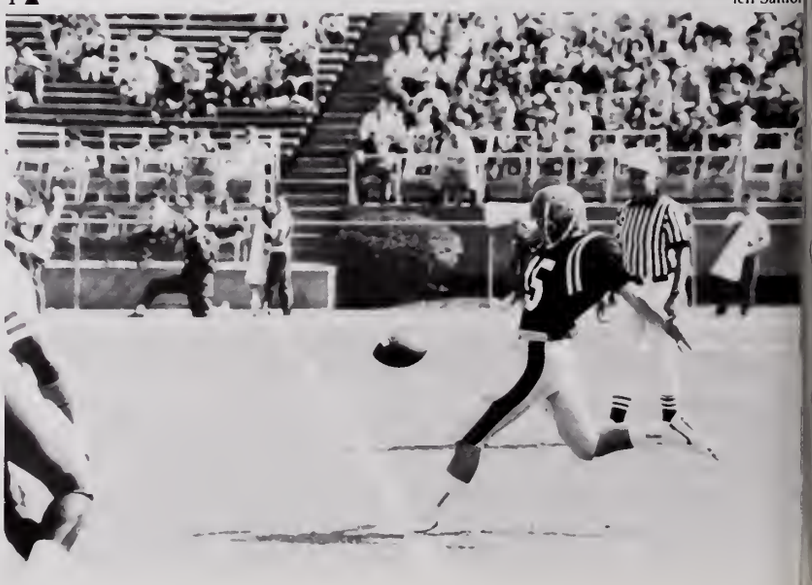

"One thing we're going to have to do is come back in the offseason and dedicate ourselves to the program," Young said. "We're going to work as hard as we can to try to improve. We'll come out with a different attitude next year. Hopefully, we'll come out on the right end."

"This program will be going forward," Brewer said. "Every year is a new year. We'll be a new football team with new enthusiam and new direction come September."

SEC'S BEST IN 3

Wide-Receiver J. R. Ambrose has been described as the most exciting player to watch in the SEC. The 6-0, 189lb. senior from Monroe, Louisiana was selected as the SEC's "Best" in three different categories in a poll by the Birmingham News — Best Kick Returner, Most Versatile, and Best Athlete. He led the team with 42 catches for a total of 515 yards, and 15 total touchdowns during his four years.

SEASON OF CHALLENGES

MURPHY'S 2ND SEASON DIFFICULT

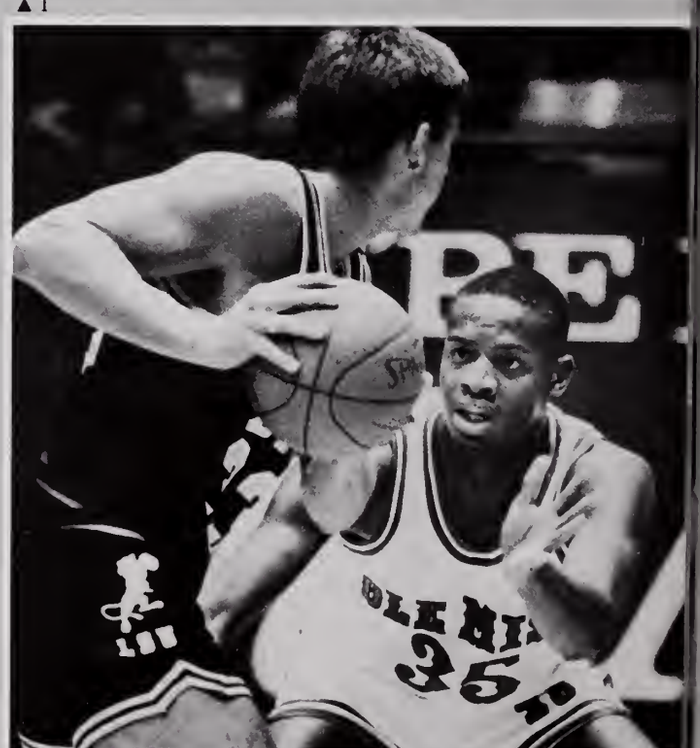

In his second year as Head Basketball coach at Ole Miss, Ed Murphy has had to face some major challenges namely the complete reconstruction of the basketball program from the ground up. The team has only two returning starters: Rod Barnes and Charles Prater. "We lost our entire front line." Murphy said. "We do not have a single player returning at forward or center with any playing time at all. Everyone will be new. That is the problem we're facing." Part of the reason for the depletion of the Rebel front line is the extensive recruiting of junior college players by former Ole Miss Head Coach Lee Hunt. In the last five seasons, the Rebels have linked 10 junior college transfers. Now, the junior college route Ole Miss followed so diligently has come to a dead end and Murphy spent most of the 1987-88 season trying to get his six freshmen to learn the "ropes". "It was foreseeable." Murphy said, "We went the freshman route this year because we did not want to face the same situation two years from now. Literally, we have a half dozen kids that have never played collegiate basketball."

The Rebels were 7-9 including a 1-6 record in the SEC games at mid-season, although Seniors Rod Barnes and Charles Prater had some outstanding performances. Freshman Tim Jumper set a school record for the most points scored in a single game by a freshman with 28 points against Florida.

Murphy believes that this team played hard and did their best, which is the most important aspect of the team concept. "I'm very fortunate." Murphy said. "I've told people this and they don't believe me: If I was independently wealthy, I'd be the basketball coach at Ole Miss — free. I would! I'd give the salary away or something. I really don't ever want to do anything else. I'm a basketball coach. I like doing what I do, and it's great to do it at a big state university that has the competition that we're up against. It's great experience — a great job. I owe this university my best and believe me, you get it; even when I fail, you get it."

UNLIKELY GUARD

6-1 guard, Roderick Barnes is the only four-year player on Head Coach Ed Murphy's squad. The senior has compiled personal records for the team including scoring 34 points vs. New Orleans and 7 assists against three teams. Coach Murphy said, "Rod is a great player — one of the best defensive players in the league. He is the most unlikely looking player in the league. He just doesn't look like a basketball player. He's an excellent point guard; he takes care of the ball. Rod is a hard worker and an over achiever."

PRATER TOUGH

In his second season with the Rebels, senior Charles Prater has added to the Murphy man-to-man offense. The small forward scored 16 rebounds against Tennessee, a personal best. In 86-87 season, he played all 29 games. "He is an outstanding defender and a tough player," said Coach Murphy. After the Tennessee defeat in overtime Prater said, "I like going to the glass and rebounding . . . and they weren't doing much blocking. I got a lot of cheap, easy baskets."

TALENT WINS OVER ODDS

YOUNG TEAM WINS BIG

At the end of the 1986-87 season, everyone was unsure if the Lady Rebels could still produce a 25-5 team. Though playing without graduated all-star forward, Alisa Scott, and two other regulars from the 86-87 squad which tied for second in the SEC title chase, as well as, having only two returning starters, several publications had picked the group to be SEC and national championship contenders early in the season.

Head Coach Van Chancellor, in his 10th season with the Lady Rebels, was concerned about the teams chances when he said, "We have a great schedule, but it will be a tough one. The SEC is a killer league and I think going into the season there are at least two teams in the league better than us and some more teams right there with us." Apparently Chancellor overestimated his competition. The team won 16 of its first 17 games including Southeastern Conference wins against rivals Vanderbilt and Florida.

Chancellor's concern about putting an inexperienced team on the court was put to rest. The team shot 47 percent from the floor and sank 32 percent of their three-point field goals throughout the early part of the season.

Going for his 10th straight winning season at Ole Miss, Chancellor explained his philosophy. "We've won in women's basketball at Ole Miss for several reasons. No. 1, we've had good players who are good human beings. No. 2, we've had good coaches who have complimented each other. And No. 3, we've had a financial commitment from the University to give us the tools to be successful. My goal is to one day win an NCAA Championship at Ole Miss, but I realize that may be unrealistic because there are so many good women's programs, and many of them are in our own conference."

In the game of basketball, the Lady Rebels are winners both on and off the court.

PLAYING BIG

High scorer Cynthia Autry after starting in 30 games in the 86-87 season, has come on strong in 1988. The 5-11, junior center from Houston, Mississippi, led the team in scoring and rebounding through much of the season. "For a player her size, Cynthia Autry plays as big as anyone I've coached. She's a good rebounder and has an uncanny ability to make shots. We're counting on her to give us additional leadership this year," said Van Chancellor.

Over the four years Kim Bullard has started for the Lady Rebels, she has always performed. In 1988 at mid-season she led the team in three-point field goals at 38.5%. She also led the team with 85 assists and 34 steals. Head Coach Van Chancellor said, "Kim provides our team with exceptional leadership and is a good outside shooter. She handles and passes the ball extremely well, and her experience will be vital to us this year." She is said to rank as one of the top three guards in the SEC.

NETTERS ON THE MOVE

YOUNG TEAM REACHES NEW HEIGHT

The men's tennis team continued steady improvement last spring achieving many firsts. Early in the season, the Rebels were ranked in the top 25 teams nationally for the first time ever. They also recorded first time victories over Florida and Cal.-Irvine, one of only 16 teams to reach the NCAA tournament. "We went 14-12, finished in 4th at the SEC indoor tournament, and recieved national exposure. With six returning players and three new recruits, we should continue to improve." said Chadwick optimistically. The team excelled both on and off the court with David Baxter, Joey Johnson, Wade Petty, and David Randall making the Academic All-SEC team.

All-in-all 1987 was an exciting year. Among the returners are Dave Randall, a junior from Tupelo, and Aaron Barrick, a senior from North Carolina, who combined to win the SEC no. 2 indoor title last spring. Also returning is Jimmy Pitts, a sophomore from Georgia. Chadwick calls Pitts "the most consistent player on the team", and predicts him to reach the NCAA tournament this year. The other returning players include senior Wade Petty, and juniors David Baxter and Jim Williams. Improvement was evident in the fall season when Pitts made it to the finals of the Clemson Classic,and Baxter and Pitts won the 2nd div. doubles. Also in the fall season, Randall and freshman Borris won the Rolex SW Louisiana Tournament. Chadwick expects to secure a spot in the NCAA tournament and to be ranked nationally in the spring of 1988 . "Things look bright," says Chadwick "for tennis at Ole Miss."

In 1986 he was ranked no. one in NC, the south, and top 24 nationally in boys 18-and-under-singles. He captured the 1986 Southern Closed singles and doubles titles and won the 1985-86 Southern Indoor Championships. In 1987 he competed with Dave Randall to win the no. two doubles helping UM finish 4th in the SEC Indoor Tourn., and he won the 1987 Southern Open doubles title with John Sales.

SEASON LOOKS OPTIMISTIC

YOUNG SEEKING NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHI

Lady Rebel tennis coach Jerry Montgomery is optimistic and with good reason. With two-time All-Southeastern Conference player, Jane Young, returning, Coach Montgomery is looking forward to this season. Young, a senior from Canada, approaches her final season with an NCAA Championship in her sights. Montgomery describes Young as a "world-class player with big-time potential." Making the all — SEC team twice, Young is the only Lady Rebel to reach the NCAA tournament. Also returning this year is Heather Hartman, a senior from Delaware. Hartman improved throughout the season to reach the finals of the SEC championship, finishing 3rd in the SEC. The Lady Rebels defeated Vandy, Alabama, Virginia, and Syracuse to finish the season 6th in the SEC. Other players returning include seniors Lynn Hennessey, and Rachel Paris, and juniors Clara Arnold, Laura Nelson and Dawn Parkhurst. The fall season was excellent for the Lady Rebels with Heather Hartman and Lynn Hennessey making it to the finals of the consolation doubles in the SEC Indoor Tournament. Also making it to the finals was Young whose recovery from a 1986 injury had slowed her improvement. Montgomery anticipates a great season in 1988 and looks for senior leadership from Young, Hartman, and Hennessey.

SEEKING TITLE

Jane Young, from Waterloo, Canada, came to Ole Miss in 1983 liking coach Chadwick's approach to the game and the good weather. A two-time all-SEC player, Young played in the 1985 NCAA Tournament before taking off a year to play on the pro circuit competing in the U.S. and Canadian Opens. While on the tour she won the Canadian National title and was ranked as high as 128th in the world and 2nd in Canada. Young enters her senior year posessing a world-class forehand, and great determination as she strives for the 1988 NCAA title.

NINTH IN SEC

YOUNG TEAM WILL COMPETE

Head Track Coach Ken Gibson, in his second season with the Rebels, ended the 1987 season with disappointing finishes in both the indoor and outdoor track and field events. The Ole Miss men's and women's teams each concluded the season with 9th place finishes in the SEC. The highlight came when freshman Alan Ince of Barbados finished third in the 500 meter run with a time of 1:04.07 at the Mason-Dixon Indoor Games in Louisville, Kentucky.

The young women's cross-country squad with four returnees from the 1986 women's team finished 8th in the SEC Championships. The men's team, with only one returner and eight freshmen trying for the seven top spots, had a 9th place finish.

Early in the season Gibson said, "We will be basically young teams with a lot of enthusiam. We have the kind of group that will improve as the season goes along." As the teams work hard to get ready for the upcoming indoor season, Coach Gibson is shaping his athletes into true competitors.

EXPECTED TO BLOSSOM

Nyarinda Aduma joined the Lady Rebel team in the fall of 1986 following a strong career at East High School in Youngstown, Ohio. Coach Gibson expects her to "really blossom" in the spring of 1988. Aduma holds several high school records and finished first in the 400 meters at the AAU Junior Olympics. During the '87 season at Ole Miss, Aduma scored in the South Eastern Conference as a member of two relay teams. Aduma's personal records: 100m-11.8, 200m-25.0, and 400m-55.3.

OLYMPIC HOPEFUL

A native of Christ Church, Barbados, Alan Ince came to Ole Miss when Coach Gibson showed an interest and offered him a chance to run for the Rebels. Following the 1987 season, Ince was 3rd in the South Eastern Conference in the 400m hurdles. He competed at the Mason-Dixon Games where he placed 3rd in both the 500m run and the 1600m relay. Ince hopes to compete in the 1988 Olympics representing Barbados and he looks forward to both the SEC and NCAA Championships in the spring where he'll be running for the Rebels.

PROGRAM ON THE RISE

SEARCH FOR COACH, YOUNG WOMEN'S TEAM

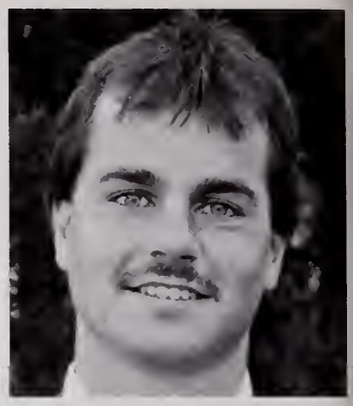

The Ole Miss Golf program is on the rise. In their second year of play, after being added as the seventh women's sport in order to meet NCAA requirements, Coach Beth Estes looks confidently toward the future for the lady Rebels. The lady's team is young and building with recruits for the first time after a 1987 team of mostly walk-ons. Since most of the other seven teams in the SEC are well established, being competitive is going to take some time. Veronica McFadden is expected to lead the lady Rebels along with the other returning golfers: Louise Davis, Lindy Dorris, and Jane Hawkins, and there are four freshmen recruits with whom Coach Estes hopes to build a solid base for future squads. Estes is opptimistic about the spring and her young team. Even though the team is inexperienced there is definite talent that is going to show.

The men's 1987 season turned out really well under the leadership of Coach Ernest Ross, who ended his career at Ole Miss this fall, after eight seasons at the helm of the Rebel squad. Following a good spring season with a 2nd place finish at the SEC Invitational and a 3rd place finish at the Gamecock Invitational, the Rebels finished with an impressive spring scoring average of 293.9. The 1987 fall season was equally impressive and left the Rebels holding top honors at the Fairfield Bay Classic and 3rd place at the LSU National Invitational.

Dave Miley, Jeff Daves and Lan Gooch are expected to lead the Rebels in the spring. All had good fall seasons, with Miley and Daves bringing home top honors. Miley won the LSU National Invitational and lost in sudden death at the Stanford Invitational. Jeff Daves won the Arkansas State Invitational and is expected to have an excellent spring.

The Rebels hope to have a replacement for Coach Ross by January, but regardless of the coaching situation, the Rebels look forward to a great spring season.

Lan Gooch, from Houston, MS, has been a leader to the Ole Miss squad. As a freshman, he played in 5 tournaments completing the season with a 76.3 scoring average. In 1986, he finished 4th in the SEC, capturing top honors at both the Greenville and Deerfield Country Club Invitationals. In 1987 he won the MS Amateur and the Spirit of America Tournaments and took top honors at the Greenwood Invitational for the 2nd time in his career. Gooch was chosen 1st team All-SEC in 1987 and expects a strong spring season.

She competed in all 7 tournaments for UM in 1986 with a total scoring average of 84.2. During the 1987 fall season, she shot an average of 84.3 over 12 rounds leading the team. Alpha Delta Pi, the first secret society for women and the nation's oldest sorority, was founded in 1851 at Wesleyan Female College in Macon Georga. The Delta Sigma chapter at Ole Miss was established in the spring of 1960.

Since that time, each group of pledges has been able to discover the joys of becoming an ΑΔΠ. With our motto,"we live for each other," life-long A Dee Pi friendships are formed. Represented by the lion, the diamond and the colors, azure blue and white, Alpha Delt's strive for achievment in all areas of campus life such as Rebeletes, Rebel Recruiters, Yearbook editor, Taylor medalists, fraternity sweethearts, ASB senators, and many more.

Besides their campus involvement, Alpha Delt's are always ready for fun such as three formals, crush parties, swaps, cookouts, and many other activities provide for an exciting time for A Dee Pi's. First and Finest.

Chartered at Ole Miss in 1958, the Nu Beta chapter of ΑΟΠ began its exciting year with our wonderful pledge class. All the pledges received presents from their Rose Buddies. Then it was the big day for Big Sis-Lil Sis. During pledgeship, they quickly learned the intriguing background of our sheaf of golden wheat and jaqueminot rose.

No matter what ΑΟΠ's are doing, we have fun as long as we're together. ΑΟΠ's are great friends, but more importantly, we're sisters that love and support each other. This special kind of sisterhood is one that only an ΑΟΠ can know.

Tau chapter of Chi Omega was founded in 1899 and is the oldest sorority at Ole Miss. Since our founding we have strived to be leaders in every aspect at Ole Miss. Chi O's are a varying group of girls and all share a special bond of friendship.

We are honored to have this year's Derby Day Queen and Homecoming Queen. We are also represented by ASB officers, campus beauties, Rebel Recruiters, cheerleaders, campus Favorites, and fraternity sweethearts. Chi Omega's also value scholastic achievement. This is evident by our two Taylor Medalists, and our members of Mortar Board, ΟΔΚ, Chancellor Honor Roll, and other academic honoraries.

No two girls are alike in our chapter and we encourage the growth of the individual and every girl to be no one but herself.

Chi chapter of Delta Delta Delta was founded on September 22, 1904. This chapter holds many wonderful memories and even more splendid expectations for the future. It's colors silver, gold and blue along with the pearl, the pine and the pansey, symbolize the tradition found in this special sisterhood. Chi chapter's strengths lie in a variety of areas including sports, cheerleading, Favorites, fraternity sweethearts, Homecoming maids, Pike calendar girls, ASB Senators, Ambassadors, Rebelettes, Beauties, honoraries, Mortar Board, elections, and highest G.P.A. but, none of this would be possible without its oustanding members working both individually and as one.

Alpha Psi of Delta Gamma is a special chapter, because it was founded at Ole Miss in 1873. Our colors are bronze, pink and blue, and our flower is the cream colored rose. Our symbol is the golden anchor and a Raggedy ann, named Hanah, which represents the ideal Delta Gamma. DeeGee's are always ready to have fun. We have swaps with many different fraternities and enjoy two formals a year. Along with fun activities, scholarship is a big part of Delta Gamma. DeeGee's strive for scholastic excellence and are found in every campus organization. From Rebel Recruiters to fraternity little sisters, beauties to homecoming maids, campus leaders to Carrier scholars, Delta Gamma has it all.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was founded on January 15, 1913, at Howard University in Washington, D.C. by 22 outstanding college women. Their purpose at founding was "to establish and maintain a high standard of morality and scholarship among women."

The Ole Miss chapter of Delta Sigma Theta is the Lambda Sigma Chapter. This chapter was chartered in 1974. Our annual activities consist of a Thanksgiving Dinner for the elderly, Girl Scout visits, Little Miss Delta Sigma Theta pageant, and Adopt-A-Friend Program at the North Mississippi Retardation Center.

Presently, there are over 750 chapters of Delta Sigma Theta, and there are over 125,000 members. The official colors of the sorority are crimson and cream. Lena Horne, Natalie Cole, Leontyne Price, Nikki Giovanni, Barbara Jordan, Shirley Chisolm, and Leslie Uggams are a few of the many famous Deltas.

Kappa Alpha Theta, being founded January 24, 1870, at Asbury University, has grown to be the largest international sorority. In 1979 the Epsilon Zeta chapter was established at Ole Miss, where Theta's are recognized by the kites they wear. With the symbolic colors of black and gold, and pansy as the flower, Theta's hold a special togetherness.

Becoming a Theta means fun times, lifetime sisters and working to maintain a high standard of scholarship. Thetas are visible all over campus as leaders, cheerleaders, Rebelettes, Homecoming Queens, Beauties, Favorites, Rebel Recruiters, fratenrity little sisters, and sweethearts, too.

During the fall semester we are busy with sorority rush, Big Sis-Lil Sis Week, grab-a-date, Homecoming, our annual Halloween party, and winter formal. Spring brings just as much excitement with events like initiation, Founder's Day, Derby Day, crush party, spring formal, and a fundraiser for our Philanthropy the Institute of Logopedics.

During the past year, the Beta Beta chapter of Beta Theta Pi has continued to succeed as well as grow in many areas. Socially, the Betas and their little sisters have been very active. With their winter formal, the annual Ole Man River party, and other various activities, the Betas were very busy. The Betas continued their community involvement with the North Mississippi Retardation Center. The chapter's relationship with the University administration was improved by inviting their teachers and top administrators to their annual Wild Game Supper at the Beta house.

Founded in 1841, Chi Psi Fraternity was chartered at Ole Miss in 1858. Alpha Gamma is a leader in all aspects of campus life. We have members in the Ambassadors, Student Alumni Council, Campus Senate, Lambda Sigma, and other organizations and honoraries on campus.

Nationally we are a pioneer in the fraternity world. Among our many firsts include the first fraternity house, first fraternity to extend from coast to coast, and one of the first fraternities to stress social interest in addition to academic endeavor.

A proud tradition once set is now a legacy proudly upheld: this is Chi Psi at Ole Miss.

Delta Psi fraternity began the '87 school term with one of the best pledge classes anywhere. Throughout the entire fall semester, social events with sororities such as ΠΦ, ΑΟΠ, ΦΜ, ΑΔΠ and ΔΔΔ, as well as with our little sisters made the semester go by like a flash. The Spring Semester officially begins in February at the "Saints and Angels Ball" in New Orleans; a strictly formal affair. Our unique theme party known as "Mystery Weekend" on Red and Blue weekend provides a needed break from the busy routine of spring classes.

Delta Psi also proudly participated in several philanthropy and service projects, and successfully retained the 1st place Homecoming Float again this year!

Kappa Alpha Order was founded at Washington college, now Washington and Lee University, in 1865 by a band of young men who served in the armies of the South during the Civil War. The Order is of a military-religious nature and is based upon the chivalric principles stressed by it s spiritual founder Robert E. Lee. The Order now boasts some 120 chapter located Coast to Coast.

Alpha Upsilon chapter was established at Ole Miss on January 12, 1900. From its beginning on this campus, this chapter developed a progressive attitude foward life, intermingled with a feeling of pride, devotedness, and accomplishment. This is exemplified by the fact that KA's are involved in every aspect of life at Ole Miss, claiming memberships in such honoraries and organizations as ΜΑΕΔ, ΒΑψ, ΟΔΚ, and Order of Omega. Excellence is achieved by each; politically, academically, and athletically.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was founded at Howard University on January 9, 1914. The Eta Beta chapter was established at the University of Mississippi on February 26, 1975. Phi Beta Sigma has always believed that brotherhood, scholarship, and service are among the greatest assests among fraternity life. The diversities of its members separate Phi Beta Sigma from other fraternities.

Phi Beta Sigma is pround to have among its members, leaders in religious organizations, intramural and Varsity athletes, and government organization members. Despite all of the activities the fraternity is currently involved in, members are still able to enjoy an active social life as well as contribute to the community around them. Truly, Phi Beta Sigma both embellishes and incorporates its creed into everyday life: "Culture for Service and Service to Humanity."

On December 26, 1848, at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, six college men founded a brotherhood called Phi Delta Theta on friendship, sound learning and moral rectitude. Since those days, ΦΔΘ has grown into an organization claiming approximately 200 chapters.

Although the men of Mississippi Alpha are proud of the heritage of their national fraternity, we are even proud of our own acomplishments. Established on June 9, 1877, ΦΔΘ has been an integral part of many aspects of campus life. The last two years Mississippi Alpha was awarded the Harvard Trophy by our national office recognizing the best chapter in the nation.

Annually Phi Delta Theta is very active. The Phi Delt's and the Kappa Delta sorority have an annual Christmas party with the North Mississippi Retardation Center. In January ΦΔΘ has Ivy League. Their spring formal is in March and April is considered community service month.

Pi Kappa Alpha has had an exciting and fun-filled year. Beginning at Bid Day, Pikes began to see the great things the semester would offer. The semester began with Thursday night swaps that continued throughout the fall semester. Each Football Home game we had bands to celebrate the Rebels' wins and losses. Homecoming is a long-time Pike tradition, where we enjoyed the time spent with our cherished alumni. We definately kept our reputation of having the best parties on campus going this year.

At the beginning of spring semester, Pikes partied at the mysterious Jimmy V.D. Weekend. It was followed by our spring formal, Charles Sumner. Red-Blue weekend ended the semester with yet another wild party.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded in 1856 at the University of Alabama. Our chapter, Mississippi Gamma, was founded in 1866. ΣΑΕ at Ole Miss has members involved in various campus activities, most notably the Business School President, and the Associated Student Body President. Also, ΣΑΕ is known for its parties. Swaps, the Christmas Party, and Paddy Murphy are all great parties especially in the new house we are currently building. ΣΑΕ is definitely a tradition at Ole Miss and always will be.

Sigma Chi Fraternity was founded at the University of Miami in 1855. Two years later the Eta Chapter was established here at Ole Miss, the first chapter of ΣX in the south. ΣX is proud to have as members leaders in student government, IFC, religious organizations, and athletics.

Despite all the activities Sigma Chi's are involved in, they still have time for an active social life. Major social events include the Groundhog Ball, Little Sister Christmas Party, Derby Day, the Winter Formal, as well as "basement parties." Eta Chapter has sponsored Derby Day here at Ole Miss for the past twenty-four years, and it has grown to become one of the highlights of the spring semester. The Kidney Foundation has awarded Eta Chapter with their Distinguished Service Award three different times for fundraising done on behalf of the Foundation. Sigma Chi's have been also active in raising money for the Campaign for Ole Miss, as well as the Bessie Speed Center.

Sigma Nu Fraternity was founded at Virginia Military Institute in 1869. Epsilon Xi Chapter began at Ole Miss in 1927 and has been a leader on campus academically, athletically and socially. The diversity of our brothers allows us to accomplish this feat. Among our members are the President of the Senior Class, a Newman Scholar, a Carrier Scholar, the Financial Director of the Student Programming Board, and the former Attorney General of the Student Body. Sigma Nu also has brothers who are governmental organizations members, varsity athletes, student body officers, religious organization leaders, intramural all-stars, and IFC officers. In addition to all of this, the Sigma Nu's lead an active social life. Besides our swaps, we have Roaring Twenties, Snakes on the Lake, and our annual Christmas Party.

Activites this year will consist of our Homecoming for Alumni and Parents, our Halloween and Christmas parties, and our litter sister socials. Sigma Pi will be raising money for Multiple Sclerosis and the Heart Foundation. Spring will see an Orchard Ball Formal in Memphis, our Late Nite Weekend, and our ground breaking celebration at the site of our new house, to be built on the current site of the old Sigma Pi house on the corner of Village Road and Fraternity Row. We will also be holding our drive for Multiple Sclerosis in the spring semester.

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded in Richmond, Virginia in 1901 at what is now the University of Richmond. It was expanded to a national fraternity in October of 1902 and has grown to be the largest fraternity in the U.S.

The Mississippi Alpha Chapter's purpose is to create an environment conducive to personal growth, friendship, and self-fulfillment, and to foster in its members a lasting and positive attitude toward the fraternity by supplememting an individual's education with the richness of group experience and shared ideals as embodied in our Ritual.

Yearbook Staff

Putting it all together

The 1988 OLE MISS is the 94th edition of the yearbook of the University of Mississippi. The '88 staff was composed of 70 students: section editors, copywriters, layout personnel, artists, photographers, photo processors, and business personnel.

The annual requires a business manager and assistant in order to sell 60 pages of organizations, 60 pages of fraternities and sororities, and 18 pages of honoraries.

Because the job of producing a quality 416-page yearbook is a tremendous undertaking, requiring coordination among the editor, section editors, general staff, and business staff, the '88 yearbook staff hopes you enjoy your 1988 OLE MISS.

The Daily Mississippian

Whether you liked it or not, you read it.

The Daily Mississippian, a member of the Mississippi Press Association, has served the Ole Miss campus since 1911, first weekly as The Mississippian, and since 1962 as The Daily Mississippian. Ole Miss is among the minority of college campuses that enjoys a daily newspaper. Few students realize it, but reading the comics every day is something most college students don't get the chance to do.

Yet The Daily Mississippian is far more than comics. The 1987-88 Daily Mississippian has worked to keep the students abreast of the news and views of the Ole Miss campus. But they didn't stop there. Because The Daily Mississippian is the only newspaper many students read, The Mississippian felt it had an obligation to report more national and state news than in the past.

This added coverage was due in part to the efforts of the advertising department, which increased ad sales by almost 25 percent over the previous year. These added sales translated into a larger paper with more news for the students. The 1987-88 Daily Mississippian had its share of mistakes, but it also had its share of success. The greatest success, however, is that student journalists were able to practice the skills they will use after graduation, while the students were able to get a quality newspaper.

Radio U-92

Cable radio?

Ole Miss' student-run radio station, U-92, continues to grow in the basement of Farley Hall. The station allows students to program and play their favorite music, whatever it may be.

Currently, U-92 listeners must have a University cable hook-up to receive its signals. However, by the fall semester of 1988, U-92 will change its transmission from cable to antenna; students will be able to hear U-92 over the airways.

The ASB Justice Department is the legal branch of the Executive Department. The Attorney General and his deputies are empowered to enforce the code and constitution of the student body. They handle all civil cases brought against the ASB, such as election violations, and provide the student judicial bar, which is made up of law students that help students when they are charged with an offense.

Academic Affairs Committee

In-class concern for students

The purpose of the Academic Affairs Committee is to nurture the needs of students in all areas of academia. Such areas include exam week and dead day, pre-registration, course changes, teacher policies, and student "I" (incomplete) grades.

Over the past year, the council has been mainly concerned with the process of pre-registration and with teachers who give tests during dead week, which is the week prior to final exam week.

Campus Senate

Debating campus issues

The Campus Senate is the legislative branch of the Associated Student Body and is presided over by the Vice President of the ASB. As such, this branch, composed of 50 elected senators representing different areas of campus, makes the rules for carrying out business in matters delegated to the student association by the administration.

In addition to making the rules regarding such things as structure and function of committees and qualifications for offices and honors, the Senate also decides how to allocate the money that allows various ASB committees to carry out their functions to best serve the students.

To facilitate the procedure, the Senate is divided into committees which each deal with different student government interests to study measures of importance to each area.

Senators are elected each fall for a one year term.

The ASB Secretary's little helpers

The Executive Secretaries form a committee which was newly installed within the 1987-88 ASB administration. Made up of volunteers who are experienced secretarial workers, the Executive Secretaries assist ASB officers by doing clerical jobs in the ASB office.

Although volunteer work in Associated Student Body government is nothing new, the Executive Secretaries have proven themselves important to this year's ASB secretary, Charlotte White.

Student Loan Service

Need a little extra cash?

The Student Loan Service is an ASB funded operation that provides Ole Miss students with short-term, no interest loans when they are in need of financial assistance. Loans between $15 and $100 are given out to students to be paid back within 30 days. The Student Loan Service is located in room 408 of the Student Union.

Chancellor's Leadership

Freshmen today-leaders tomorrow

In 1985 Chancellor Gerald Turner announced the formation of the Chancellor's Leadership Class. As a result, the University launched a search for approximately sixty young men and women to receive the Chancellor's Leadership Awards, which were inaugurated to salute Ole Miss freshmen for their accomplishments in high school and to encourage further development of their leadership abilities.

As preparation for their leadership roles, the members of the Leadership Class attend leadership functions and seminars throughout the year. Leading the discussions of these events are members of the administration, internationally known professors, students holding top offices in campus groups, and government, professional, and business leaders. Class members are encouraged to take an active part in campus life during their undergraduate careers and to assume responsible roles in civic and state affairs when they leave college.

The CLC marked the end of the fall semester with a Christmas party at the Chancellor's home. Brad McPeak looks on as Kelli Kilner unwraps her gag gift, a bottle of champagne.

Ambassadors

Representing Ole Miss from across the nation

The Ole Miss Ambassadors and Regional Representatives play an important part in the high school and junior college relations activities of the Admissions Office. A student organization within the executive branch of the ASB government, the Ambassadors provide tours and otherwise help host campus visitors, attend receptions for prospective students, visit high schools, and participate in other programs to communicate information about Ole Miss to interested students and their families. Members are initially designated Regional Representatives and are selected for membership based on communications skills, grades, and extracurricular activities. Representaives become Ambassadors only after having participated in a significant number of the organization's activities. Membership is open to all undergraduates with at least a 2.5 grade point average. Application is usually required early in September.

Air Force ROTC

UM cadets spread their wings

Ole Miss' Air Force Reserved Officers Training Corps cadets receive instruction in both the classroom and in leadership labs. Junior and senior cadets have a chance to demonstrate concepts they have learned while they introduce the freshmen and sophomore cadets to these concepts. In addition to the learning experiences on campus, cadets are provided the chance to visit Air Force Bases around the country.

AFROTC is not all work and no play. Some fun events for our cadets include Tri-services Field Day, the Halloween party, Christmas banquet/party, and the annual Dining Out, which is a formal Air Force banquet. These activities bring our cadets closer together and let them know that there is more to life than just work.

Having well-rounded cadets is one of the goals of our detachment. AFROTC at Ole Miss not only prepares cadets for life in the Air Force, but life in general as well.

Navy ROTC

Not just college, an adventure

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) was established at Ole Miss in June, 1946, with the purpose of training Ole Miss students for future naval careers.

NROTC students are classified as either Scholarship or College Program midshipmen. Scholarship midshipmen are under a Navy subsidized scholarship during their four years in college. These students are selected by nationwide competitive examinations. Upon receiving their degrees, physically qualified students receive commissions as Ensigns in the Navy or as Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps. All Scholarship students commissioned must serve four years on active duty. At the end of the four year period commissioned students may choose to leave the active service and be commissioned into the Naval Reserve.

College Program students are subject to the same physical and mental qualifications as the Scholarship students; however, during their third and fourth years of college, these students are paid a subsistence allowance and, upon graduation, are given commissions in the Navy or Marine Corps.

Army ROTC

Ole Miss students being "all they can be"

Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) is a program which offers college students the opportunity to graduate as officers and serve in the U.S. Army, the Army National Guard, or the U.S. Army Reserve. ROTC enhances a student's education by providing unique leadership and management training, along with practical experience. It helps a student develop many of the qualities basic to success in the Army, or in a civilian career.

The Army ROTC program was activated at the University of Mississippi as an infantry unit on 11 March, 1936. It was originally housed in the Peabody Building where it remained until World War II. The unit moved to its present quarters at Guyton Hall in 1961. In 1954, ROTC was made compulsory for all male students and remained so until 1970 when it became voluntary. To date, over 1200 cadets have recieved their commission at Ole Miss, of which four have attained the rank of General.

Rugby Club

Ruggers have busy year

The Ole Miss Rugby Club finished their fall schedule just above .500, with a 7-6 record. The fall schedule included matches against Rhodes, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State, Dry Gulch, Memphis State, and Gulf Coast Match Club. Although their fall finish wasn't spectacular, the club fought to a second place finish in the Mid-South Collegiate Tourament and a third place finish in the Jocquestrappe Tourney.

For the 1988 spring semester, the Rugby club scheduled Dry Gulch, Mississippi State, Rhodes, and Memphis State. Other spring matches included the Mardi Gras Tourney in Baton Rouge, the Governor's Cup in Jackson, the Gulf Coast Tourney in Gulfport, and the Dixie Invitational, which was hosted by the UM club during March.

Karate Club

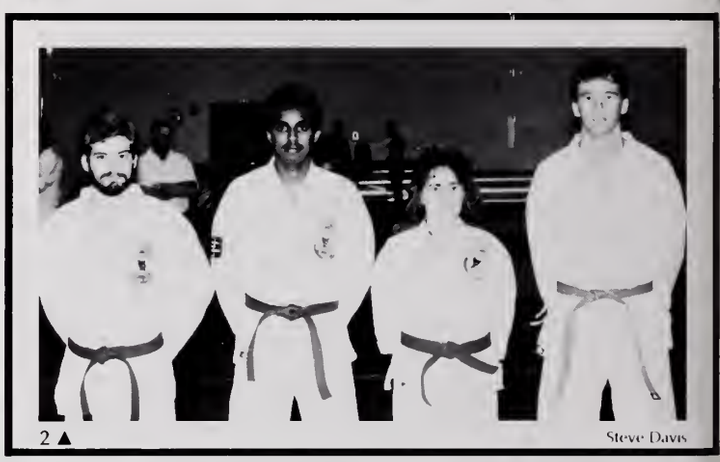

Karate students get their kicks

The Ole Miss Karate Club was founded in 1975 by Bob Nance. Nance's senior student, Bobby Holley, took over as instructor of the group in 1982. Holley is currently the director of the Mississippi Karate Association. The style of karate studied by the Ole Miss Karate Club is Isshinryu, an Okinawan variety. The traditions of this style are respectfully maintained by the UM group. Balance, posture, and agility are stressed as well as stamina and physical conditioning.

The Ole Miss Karate Club represents the University by sponsoring a major tournament each fall, through seminars by karate masters such as A. J. Advincula, and by its own demonstrations and rank tests. The Karate Club meets on Monday and Wednesday nights and is open to all students, faculty, and staff.

Lacrosse Club

New club comes in with style

For several years, lacrosse at Ole Miss has been a Sunday afternoon game played only in the halls of Stockard, in the Grove, or in the front yards of a few fraternity houses. However, the fall of 1987 marked the beginning of the Ole Miss Lacrosse Club, and with the help of Steven Mason, Randall Peterson, and many other interested students, the 1987-88 team materialized. The UM club, which plays in the spring, tentatively scheduled Rhodes, Auburn, Alabama, Tulane, Sewanee, Georgia Tech, Florida State, Georgia, LSU and Vanderbilt.

Soccer Club

Club finishes 5-4

The 1987-88 season proved not completely successful for the Ole Miss Soccer Club, as the team lost five starters to injuries.

Coach Paul Barnard stated that, "Although good players came through to replace them (the injured starters), the other conference teams retained their rosters and the games were more competetive."

The club's final conference record was 3-3, which was not good enough to qualify for the Gulf States Conference post-season tournament; however, the club did receive an invitation to the Southeastern Conference tournament.

Water Ski Club

Ramp Dogs

Although the sport of competitive water skiing is relatively unheard of for many, several students at Ole Miss have caught onto this rapidly growing sport. As a result, Ole Miss competes in tournaments around the south during both fall and spring semesters. Membership requirements are that a person loves to ski and is willing to pay dues each semester. Club members compete in the areas of jumping, trick skiing, and slaloming. Available to members are a slalom course, a ski jump, professional and nonprofessional coaching, and lots of fun!

Hotty Toddy Club

ARE YOU READY?!

Although the Hotty Toddy Club is new to the Ole Miss campus, students have repeated the often criticized Hotty Toddy cheer over and over at UM athletic events. Dedicated to the preservation of traditional Ole Miss spirit, the Hotty Toddy Club supports all Ole Miss spectator sports.

With almost 75 students gathering for the first meeting in February, the Hotty Toddy Club collected annual dues to fund many projects. Some of the planned events include a spring shrimp boil, "Hotty Toddy" T-shirts (which are no longer sold on campus), and the distribution of buttons.

Membership is open to all Ole Miss students.

Rebel Recruiters

Always there, making a difference

The Rebel Recruiters had its beginning in the Steve Sloan era and has played an important role for our sports program ever since. The students in the organization help the coaching staff with the recruitment of prospective student/athletes. They serve as hostesses during recruiting events, welcome propects who are visiting campus, and phone or write prospects that the coaches assign to them.

Each girl represents Ole Miss and shows her friendly attitude toward people and her willingness to help them. The Recruiters are always present to show support for the football team, and always do their best to build school spirit. Recruiters see the team off for away games, make signs, and send "happies" to players that are hurt.

Being a Rebel Recruiter means lots of hard work, yet this year's president, Melanie Dahlem, who has been a Recruiter for four years, aserts that being in the Recruiters is truly a "rewarding experience." As well a getting to know some great people, Recruiters may actually influence a prospective athlete's decision to choose Ole Miss. The Rebel coaching staff is proud of the Rebel Recruiters, as each girl plays an important part in the recruiting process.

Student Alumni Council

Working with alumni for a better Ole Miss

The Student Alumni Council, sponsored by the Ole Miss Alumni Association, is comprised of students who represent classes, academic departments, campus organizations, and geographical districts. The S.A.C. acts as the "bridge" between the University's students and alumni. One of the principle goals of the Council is to educate these representatives about the alumni program and all of its functions. The representatives may then become actively involved in alumni-related activities. Through the S.A.C., students may meet alumni and discover opportunities the Association has to offer.

UM Pre-Law Society

Law school hopefuls reorganize

The Ole Miss Pre-Law Society, after several years being absent, was reorganized in 1987 to bring together undergraduates with a common interest in the law and the study of law. The society guides its members on the types of courses that would be beneficial during their undergraduate years, how to apply to law schools, what to expect in law school, and the practice of law.

Speakers such as judges, practicing lawyers, admissions representatives, and law students give the members a well-rounded view of law. Other programs enable small groups of students to sit in on class lectures at the Law Center on campus; therefore, the undergraduate gets a glimpse of how Law classes are conducted and what to expect in class.

Many students enjoyed an SPB-sponsored ski trip to Steamboat Springs, Colorado, over their Christmas vacation. Spring semester activities included a concert by blues singer B.B. King, a performance in Fulton Chapel by Charlie Pride, and Dixie Week, which featured a concert by Guadalcanal Diary in Fulton Chapel. In addition to the spring SPB events was a Mexican Riviera cruise, an SPB first, during spring break.

Before Hefley's Thanksgiving feast, residents help each other prepare the food.

Hefley Hall

Hefley Dorm's hall council set themselves apart this year by getting involved in many philanthropy projects. Money was raised for the Natchez Children's Home by having a "Tape of Dimes" contest. Each resident collected dimes and stuck them onto cellophane tape. In the end, the Hefley resident with the longest tape won a prize.

Hefley also had many social events which included cookouts, a Halloween party, Christmas party, and a potluck Thanksgiving feast. Through the social efforts of the Hefley council, each resident had the chance to better know their neighbors.

Steve Davis

Hefley Council Board members are: Juana Sweargen-Second floor representative, Charlotte Martin-RHA representative, Robin King-Hefley President, Laura Lipsey-Hefley Vice President, Karen Smith-Secretary/Treasurer, Diane Keenum-Third floor representative, Marilyn Weddington-Fourth floor representative.

Crosby Hall

Crosby Hall, the largest women's dormitory on campus, boasts 10 floors with a kitchen/TV lounge on each floor. The hall council, resident advisors, and hall director worked hard to provide a "home away from home" for its residents.

To entertain its residents and to bring such a large group of girls together, Crosby sponsored many events. Residents of Crosby Hall were welcomed back to school with an ice cream social on the back patio. Other fall get-togethers included cookouts, Homecoming activities, and holiday parties. At the end of the 1988 spring semester, Crosby sponsored the annual "School's Out" barbecue.

Crosby Hall residents were also greatly involved in sports and organizations throughout campus. Represented by such a wide variety and large number of girls, Crosby Hall was definitely the place to be.

Stewart Hall

Stewart Hall is one of the most involved dorms in the University's intramural program. They had great teams for football, basketball, and softball. Not only did the residents play, but others turned out in great numbers to cheer on their team. Some other activies sponsored by Stewart Hall are cookouts and tye dye and T-shirt painting parties. For Christmas, Stewart had a campus-wide party.

Stewart Hall Council: Jody Cline, Lynn Beard, Shana Goodwin, Liza Cook, Carole Lakoff, Lavorce Frierson, Thersa Humphrey, Barbara Mathis, Janice Jenkins, Liz Thurman, Colleen Burghardt, Sherry Butler, Kelly Allen, Audrey Allbritton, Beth Higginbotham, Jean Chambers, Erin Crowther, Ginger Weir, Dana Johnson.

Robertson gains independence while at UM

Two of Ginger Robertson's goals when she came to Ole Miss were to learn how to survive on her own and to make lots of friends.

Robertson, a freshman from Jackson, has been blind since birth. She was given excess oxygen when born three months premature and, as a result, glaucoma took her vision.

Robertson decided to attend Ole Miss, following in her parents' footsteps, because it was near her home but far enough away for her independence.

Although she is very independent, Robertson says "there are times that I can't do everything."

To help her ge around campus, Robertson has Roxanne, a see ing eye dog who trained with her for one month in New Jersey.

"I wish I could see," says Robertson, "but it won't happen. I just try to make the best of situations."

Freshman wins Most Beautiful

Believe it or not, being a freshman student at Ole Miss doesn't mean you are inferior compared to upperclassmen. Just ask Beth Howell.

Howell was crowned as Ole Miss Most Beautiful 1988 over 97 other girls even though she was "just a freshman," as Howell put it after hearing her number called as the winner.

Howell, a Delta Gamma pledge from Clinton, said she has never been more excited than winning the honor.

This should prove to all freshmen that their goals, no matter how high, are never out of reach.

Congratulations Beth!

New restaurants provide better food selection

Being a college student means studying hard, partying hard, and eating out often.

We are all more than familiar with the various eating places in Oxford and we are probably all equally burned out on them by Christmas break.

However, this year Ole Miss students are fortunate enough to gain several new restaurants. We can now add Burger King, Taco Bell, Subway, Mama T's, Cafe Ole', and the Garden Deli to our list of choices.

These places add a little more variety to the diets of Ole Miss students, so maybe the burn-out won't be as severe as in past years.

Ole Miss foiled again

After much talk and negotiation, Warner Brothers Inc. decided not to film the movie ''Everybody's All-American'' at Ole Miss.

University officials said that the reason was scheduling conflicts with one of the film's stars, but according to an AP story, the producers werelooking for green locations ''appropriate for shooting fall scenes in January.''

Louisiana State University has been chosen as the location for the filming.

Herrod works hard for the Rebels

Ole Miss linebacker Jeff Herrod helps the Rebels defense tremendously by a simple technique.

"I just never stop until the whistle blows," said Herrod. "If you watch me in games you'll see that I just never stop."

A career in the NFL is not the first thing on Herrod's mind. "I don't really think about it. My knee could go out in practice tomorrow and that would be the end."

With All-SEC honors and a SEC Player of the Week honor tucked under his belt, the 6-foot-1, 240-pound senior said his main goal was to finish school and to get his degree.

Hotty Toddy Gosh Almighty Who in the Hell are we? Hey, flim flam bim bam Ole Miss, by damn!

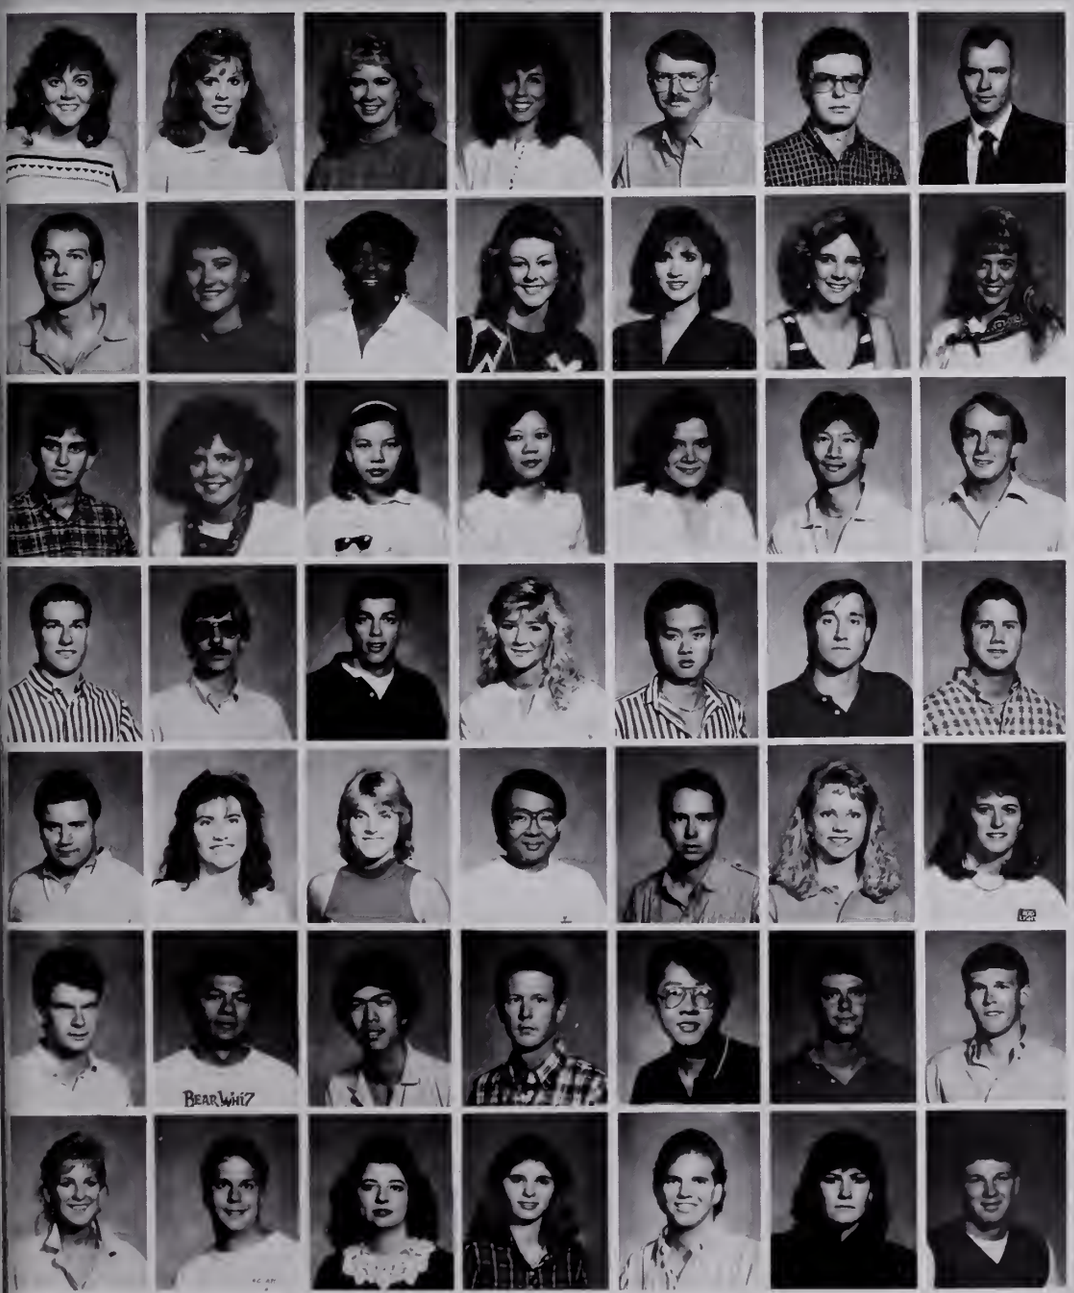

"Hotty Toddy" not the image of Ole Miss

No more "Hotty Toddy" T-shirts are sold in the Ole Miss Union bookstore or the Rebel Shop.

The reason for this action stemmed from complaints that these items "did not represent the image of the University," said Doyle Russell, Vice Chancellor for Administrative Affairs. It is unknown whether the complaints came from students or alumni.

The decision to remove these items is not negative but a positive way to enhance the image of the University.

Other Ole Miss logos are still available in the Union bookstore and Rebel Shop.

Wildfires in Lafayette County

November 5, 1987 was the day six wildfires broke out in Lafayette County and destroyed an estimated amount of 1,000 acres of county woodlands.

The wind caused one ofthe six fires (Thacker Heights) to be uncontrollable after the other five had been contained.

Seven Lafayette County fire departments went to county fires and two Oxford fire department units reported to the Thacker Heights fire.

Units from Grenada, Yalobusha, Union, Carroll and Tallahatchie counties and two from Bruce were called in to help with this catastrophe.

L. I. I. Defeated 15 To 0 in Good Game

Mississippi Had to Fight Hard Was up Against Heavy Team

In one of the prettiest and most hotly contested games played on the local gridiron in many seasons, Ole Miss defeated the heavy and strong Louisiana Industrial Institute 15 to 0 yesterday. The game was hard fought throughout and while the result was not in doubt at any time the visitors had a few slim chances to score. It was marked by fumbles and unsuccessful forward passes due to a heavy muddy field.

In the early part of the game, Mississippi lost several of her players through injuries and most of the game was played with at least four substitutes. Cahall at full as usual played a star game, kicking three field goals and making good gains. Tucker in Shields place at half did extraordinary good work tackling and ground gaining. Adams at center and Carter, left tackle did good work in the line, but there was one weak point in the line through which an L. I. I. would get through nearly every time. Mitchell kicked well and did good tackling. This was Riley's first appearance this season and his work at quarter in the last half was good. Slay was given a trial at right guard for the first time this season. Cahall made first touch down from 20 yard line and Mitchell kicked goal.

Mississippi was up against a good strong heavy plucky experienced team, just a few pounds lighter and had to fight for every point she earned. Barr Smith (Capt.) and Barnes played good game for the visitors L. I. I. did excellent tackling, had a good line and one of the remarkable qualities of their team was their wind and staying qualities. At end of first quarter the score stood 9 to 0., The second quarter yielded only one field goal kicked by Billy Cahall The third quarter was absolutely fruitless and last field goal was kicked just before the whistle blew. In the third Randolph ran 45 yards for touchdown, but was called back because of Illegal interference by one of our men. A full report of game will appear in next issue.

Hermaean Program

Hermaean Literary Society held its first regular meeting in Hermaean hall Friday night, Sept. 30 A large audience was present and several new members were initiated, the society thus beginning the year under most promising conditions

University Opens; Bright Prospects

Over Four Hundred Students Have Matriculated

Brewer Could Not be Present Bondurant at His Old Duties

It is rather late to talk about our opening but as this is our first issue we will give a few facts. Over four hundred students have matriculated up to a week ago and the records show that Mississippi has a larger number of Freshmen than ever before in her history The new men began to arrive several days before the opening and have continued to come since.

Chancellor Kincannon was on hand the first day and in his usual genial and courteous manner welcomed the new and old men. He spoke in encouraging terms of the prospects for the new year.

It had been announced that Governor-elect Earl Brewer, an alumnus of Ole Miss would deliver the opening address but professional duties prevented him from accepting. Another alumnus, Dr. Buchanan, Supt. of the Insane Asylum at Meridian, delivered a speech full of reminiscences interesting to the students.

Prof. A. L. Bondurant who spent last year in Europe studying and traveling was welcomed back by the students who cheered him to the echo as he spoke.

His statement that nearly all, if not all of Mississippi's Rhodes scholars in Oxford, England, come from our University and that over one have taken honors, was well received.

All members of the faculty were given an opportunity to make preliminary remarks regarding the courses of work they would offer during the year.

Many Changes in Faculty.

Since the last session many changes have been made in our faculty. Mr. C. D. Daniel, Instructor in English last year goes to Birmingham College where he has accepted the chair in English. Dr. H. N. Page, Assistant Professor of Anatomy, Pathology and Bacteriology last year, is now Professor of Anatomy at the University of Georgia. Prof. M. B. Garrett, Assistant Professor of History goes to the University of Michigan where he holds a similar position. Mr. James

Y.M.C.A. Reception

In accordance with its usual custom the Y. M. C. A. gave an informal reception to the whole student body in front of the Lyceum on Saturday night following the Opening. Most of the students took advantage of the opportunity to make new acquaintances and enjoy the Y. M. C. A. hospitality The exercises were opened by a short talk by Dr Stauffer full of encouragement to all students athletically inclined But it was more. He spoke of the all

Junior wrestled and Colcman won two out of three falls

Another feature of the program was the fortune telling. Two Gypsies, Misses Sims and Scarborough told the fortunes of the guests. Of course Tip Ray and Fred Spangling Canter were there and found out they were in love, would marry three times inherit fortunes and live to be a century old. Delicious punch, not spiked was served.

Editor's Closing

It is hard to believe that this year, the yearbook and my four years at Ole Miss are almost finished. I would never have believed when I was a freshman that I would be Editor of the 1987 & 1988 OLE MISS. Two years ago when Mallory Draughon, Editor of the 1986 OLE MISS, asked me if I would consider running for Editor, I thought she was crazy. I had to think about it for a while but I committed myself to the yearbook then and I do not regret one minute of it. There are so many good things that come from being Editor. To see the excitement in someones eyes as they look through an annual that I have worked on, to get proofs back and see that a year of work is finally coming together and that it is not half bad, are just a few of the better things that come with yearbooks. There is only one thing that I ask, please do not be too critical on the annual, it takes more work than anyone will ever know.

There are so many people I want to thank, but most of all is my Dad. He taught me how to have strength, courage and confidence in myself to make me believe that I could do the job. Thanks for everything! I love you! I would like to thank my Mother, Kathy, Aunt Poppy and my Grandparents. You all helped me so much! If it was not for your encouragement and support I would not have made it through four years of college and two of those being Editor.

Thanks to all my friends, Amy, Ann, Garnet, Nancy and Mr. G. but especially Ty who put up with all those long, late hours at the office. I hope you like the yearbook now that it is finished. Thank you for all your love and support, you really helped and stood by me when I needed it most! Thanks for just being there for me.

Carolynn you were great! You should be a business major not an art major. I think you could sell anything to anyone and get them to sign their life away. Hamp, the yearbook would not be anywhere without you. Thanks for helping, putting so many hours into the darkroom, and finding photographers to take all those pictures. Alisa, we could not have finished without you! Thanks for taking over.

Many, many thanks to all my section editors. Thanks for putting up with my griping, begging and pleading to get your pages finished on time. There would not be a yearbook without all of you. If you only knew what I meant when I said, "I NEED those pages before the deadline." I appreciate every thing all of you have done. My many thanks to Melanie, Richard, Hedy, Amanda, Liz, Holly, Cheryn, Katrina, Kathy, Mark, all the assistant section editors, the rest of the staff, and anyone else who helped! It was all worth it in the long run!

To Nancy Jones, the yearbook Account Representative at Taylor, who answered and solved all my problems, Rick Hess, of Taylor, who answered all my computer problems, and Ben Allen, our Taylor Representative, who was always there when I needed him, thank you for all your help, it was greatly appreciated! The annual would not exist without financial advisors, thank you Traci and Mr. Denley.

I appologize for having so many "thank you's" but it takes more than one person to complete a yearbook. I hope everyone will look back on your Ole Miss years and remember the good 'ole days of fun and friendship!

Good luck next year and remember patience!

Poppy
